Translation of a Tahsil issued by A. Wedderburn, Esq. re.,
Collector of Coimbatore, to Venkatesa Iyengar, Acting
Sheristadar of Godyamangalam Taluq, dated 21st Sep 1868

Venkatramana Iyer the Sheristadar of Godyam Taluq, who was dismissed from his post by Mr. Webster the Acting Sub-Collector, having appealed to me. I have perused the Proceedings conducted by the above officer regarding the appellant and learn from the same that the Sheristadar did not hold proper enquiry in the Hongarapollim murder case, and that he has been dismissed for wilful negligence in the matter.

2. On perusing the records connected with the above murder case, I do not think that the Sheristadar has been wilfully negligent in the case as is stated above. I have therefore set aside the decision of the above officer.

3. But as the Sheristadar failed to take down depositions from the ^{the} Manigasseri first reported about murder, and also from the person who saw the dead body lying in a pond and as he (the Sheristadar) appears appears to have occasioned some further delay in the case, he is suspended for 2 months from the 10th July last, the date on which he was dismissed.

As the two months the period of his suspension have now expired, you are directed to arrange for handing over to him the charge of his office as soon as he presents himself before you. You are further directed to enter the said Venkataramana's name in the Pay Abstract from the date of his receiving over charge of his office, and to strike off from the same the name of Venkataswami who has been acting for him.
