Gratuity.

Read the following papers :—

From the Inspector-General of Police, dated 31st January 1879, No. 448.
" Offg. Assistant to the Accountant-General, dated 17th April 1879, No. A.D.J.—108.

ORDER THEREON, 3rd June 1879, No. 302.

Application is made for the grant of an invalid gratuity of Rupees 104 to Annu-manthaloory Paupannah, late 1st-Class Constable, No. 922, of the Bellary Police Force, for his qualifying service of thirteen years, nine months, and twenty-nine days. The applicant's incapacity is stated by the Medical Officer who furnished his certificate to be the result of a syphilitic affection, and a gratuity would therefore be ordinarily inadmissible; but as A. Paupannah's conduct appears to have been generally good, His Grace the Governor in Council is pleased, in accordance with the Resolution Pension G.O., 22nd January 1879, No. 40. noted in the margin, to grant him a reduced gratuity of Rupees (91) ninety-one.

2. With reference to the Accountant-General's remarks as to indulgences granted under the Government Order above cited requiring the sanction of the Government of India, the Government observe that copy of those Proceedings was forwarded* to that Government at the time of issue.

about 37 years. I consider Paupannak to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the Department to which he belongs in consequence of general infirmity.

His incapacity appears to me to have been caused by irregular habits and the results of his own imprudence.

Enclosure One.

I have the honor to submit for the orders of Government an application for the grant of a gratuity to Anumanthaloory Sarpannah late a 1st Class Constable No 922 of the Bellary District, agreeably to G.O. No 368 and 479 dated 18th July and 3rd September 1877 respectively.

2. He has served in the Police Department for 13 years, 9 months and 29 days, and has borne a "good" character. He is now unfit for further effective service of any kind as certified by the local Medical officer as his incapacity was not

not known at the time of the assembling of the Medical Invaliding Committee and as there was no second officer available to form a special Committee.

3. He would have been entitled, under ordinary circumstances, to an invalid gratuity of Rupees 104 equal to his pay for thirteen months according to Section I of the Police Superannuation Fund Rules and Sections 82(a) and 109 Section 8 of the Civil Pension Code.

4. The Medical certificate not having been received in the proper form was returned to the District and revised one now sent is dated 8th January 1879 instead of 4th October 1878, the date of the original. Copy of extract of the Medical officer's return is also enclosed for his detailed reasons required under note 2 to Section 84 of the Civil Pension Code.

5. The Superintendent of Police explains the delay in the submission of the roll as follows:-

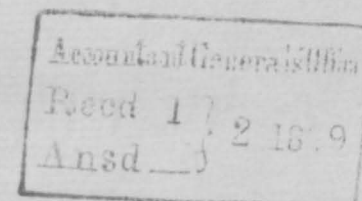

"Delay arose from the excessive difficulty in tracing out the rates of pay drawn by the Constables from time to time."
