Certified that I have carefully examined, Venkataramana Iyer son of Appasa Iyer, a Taluk peon in the Revenue Department. His age is by his own statement 55 years, and, by appearance about 56 years, I consider Venkataramana Iyer to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the Department to which he belongs, in consequence of General debility & impaired vision.
His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

addressed as follows?

To the Hon. Mr. Gladstone
Res. Report.

Sir in July last
His Grace the Governor in Council
brought before
the notice of the Hon.
Mr. Gladstone in the Financial Report:
the case of K. O.
Nehataramanayak
who had been thrown out of employ
by the abolition
of his appointment
in the District
Jaffa in consequence of the work being taken over by the Imperial Postal
Dept.

His Grace considered
that K. O.
Nehataramanayak

was ^{Mr.} ~~shall~~ ^{be} ~~admitted~~ be compensated
gratuitously & recommended
he should be granted
a compensation pension
as his service was little more than
a month short of the period qualifying
for pension on the
inferior scale.

2. In reply to the
recommendation the
Hon. Mr. Gladstone decided that no compensation
retiring allowance
could be granted to
the applicant - as
no saving had accrued to Govt. by
the abolition of his appointment.

They expressed
however their willingness to recommend him to the Sec. State for an invalid pension
of Rs. 3-0-0 upon
production of a proper
medical certificate
showing that he
was incapacitated

for further service
as it appeared
that he was infirm
had lost the use of the right hand
& suffered from
unpaired vision.

3 Before the receipt of this letter H.O.
Venkataraman
had been reemployed
on the 23rd Aug^r in the public service
as a peon. He has served as such
until he was regularly invalided
on the 7th November.

4 He is thus fully qualified for an
invalid pension
of Rs 3 which has been granted him
but as this amount
is less than that he would have been granted if he had not been reemployed. His pay the for in Council is of opinion

that he should be granted a pension
of that amount
as is directed in
the case of an officer who though
entitled to a
compensation
pension accepts
instead another
appointment.
