1. The applicant was under suspension for one month from 4th October to 4th November 1872. A true translation of the order of suspension is enclosed.

2. This was not noticed in the verified list of the applicants' services received from the Treasury Deputy Collector. Hence the omission in the Pension Application.

3. The Service Register is returned with the omission supplied.

Your Arzi No 181 dated the 7th Instant, has been received and read with the enclosures.

It appears that the Salug Gurnastah Veneata Row, whom you deputed on the 25th June last for carrying out the sale of certain moveable property in the villages of Belintou and Obasamudram referred to in the above, instead of finishing the work and coming back immediately, returned to the Salug only on the 14th July that is after an interval of 18 days. In a report of his daily work furnished by the said Veneata Row on the 22nd July it is stated that owing to his having having been ill from the 3^d to 13th Idem he was not able during that period to do any work in the way of selling property in satisfaction of arrears of Revenue due to Government but he contradicted this in his second report which he made on the 25th July, by the statement that he had performed Government work during the period in question.

It does not appear that the Gurnastah has reported his sickness to you and obtained leave in accordance with the rules. As remarked above, the Gurnastah has not only absented himself without leave to the detriment of public business but has also made a clearly inconsistent and false report. In view to his being more careful in future, he is, in pursuance of your recommendation, suspended for a month and the Registration Gurnastah Marganier is appointed to act for him.

You will accordingly get his work done by Marganier for the month and duly report Venkata Rao's resumption of charge.

mailed with the Collector's reply to Objection Memo No. ADK dated 18th April 1879, that the applicant has absented himself without leave for a period of 18 days, viz from 26 June to 14 July 79.

The Collector is requested to record enough to state why the above period of applicant's absence was not shown in the Service Book and therefore not deducted from the total period of his qualifying service in the Register of application. He will further state the authority under which the applicant's pay for that period was drawn when he was apparently entitled to any allowance.

If the payment was made by an oversight the Collector will please state whether he has any objection to the amount being now recovered from his retiring allowance.

The applicant having been punished with suspension for a month, for absenting himself without leave, and making a false report to his superior in connection with such absence, the Deputy Collector probably deemed it unnecessary to order the stoppage of his pay for the period of his absence. The applicant was therefore allowed to draw his pay for the 18 days. It appears to the Collector, that it is quite optional with the Head of the Office, to which an Officer who absents himself without leave belongs, to punish him in one of the three ways, viz 1st To stop pay for the number of days of absence, if such absence be less than one month. This is however objectionable as it would cause a break in service. 2^d To fine to the extent of the salary due for the days of absence. 3^d To suspend, dismiss &c.

The late Deputy Collector seems to have considered the last of these methods the most desirable. It is certainly not just that a man should be punished twice for the same offence. The Collector, therefore, objects to the recovery proposed.
