Fined Rs 30 for grossly culpable negligence in submitting an account and overcharge for a cart to be made up which he has received and advanced. It is only in consequence of his having for some time past been trying to be careful that he is now reported to the Com^d Genl. with a view to suspension. I can speak most highly of the energetic & conscientious manner in which S. H. Mootoooomy Pillai has conducted his duties as Manager since his promotion. He has been very hard working and punctual in attendance and is never above doing general work when the exigencies of the service require it. I have always received his ready & willing support in all matters of duty & I have found him uncompromising in reporting any irregularity in the Office and I beg to tender him my thanks for his assistance and valuable help I have always received. 23-2-75 Major J. D. Maxwell Sub-Com^d General I am sorry that I cannot agree with my Predecessor in his last Estimate of S. H. Mootoooomy Pillai, whose abilities & attention to duty are of a very average character. I have found him extremely forgetful & careless at times, & he does not command from his position in the Office that respect which his position as Head Clerk should obtain for him. 2nd March 1877.
