I was entertained in the Madras Salt Stairs as a peon for a month, in the year 1852. I have known Ramjee Law, late Duffadar of the above Stairs, from that year up to the date his services were dispensed with. He has been working with me unceasingly for some time as a peon and a Duffadar thereafter, but I remember he was suspended for one month some ten years ago during the tenor of Mr A. Smith as Salt Deputy Collector of this District.
I don't remember the exact date of his suspension.
With the exception of the above suspension his services in in the Salt Department was never interrupted.
