for further service.

To The Honorable District Court, Salem, Collector and Magistrate of Salem,

By my son

Sir

I beg leave respectfully to inform you that I served in the Collector's Cutcherry of Salem as an English Clerk from June 1843 to July 1846, when I resigned that situation and proceeded to Bangalore. - The original Takkuds granted to me on my resignation and in acceptance of my resignation were or mislaid. -

Having at present to prove the period of my services in different public Offices, I beg the favor of your causing me to be furnished with attested copies of the said Takkuds, or should that be impracticable, I request a Certificate or Memorandum the period of my service in your Cutcherry may be forwarded to me. -

Carefully soliciting a reply, and trusting that I will be pardoned for the trouble

trouble I am this giving you good news, and I am very glad to hear of
