No. 599.

FROM

J. H. GARSTIN, Esq.,

Acting Secretary to the Government of Fort St. George,

TO

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,

HOME, REVENUE, AND AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

In the recent revision of Judicial Establishments in this Presidency, which was reported to the Government of India in the letters marginally noted, the District Judge in South Arcot dispensed with the services of C. Gopal Rao, Civil Record-keeper. This man was nearly 56 years of age, and the Judge submitted an application for a superannuation pension for him, but stated he "would rather have dispensed with some other officer" had not the orders of Government requiring the removal of those eligible for pension been "peremptory." On this the Accountant-General pointed out that when an applicant is less than 60 years of age the Head of the Office must certify him inefficient through age to enable a superannuation pension to be passed.

2. In the face of the remark above noticed, the Judge could give no such certificate, and suggested the grant of a compensation pension in lieu of that already recommended; but this class of pension is also considered by the Accountant-General to be inadmissible as though there is a saving on the entire scheme there is none in respect of the applicant's appointment.

3. This ruling is technically correct and no retiring allowance can be granted without the sanction of the Government of India though C. Gopal Rao, who had served 28 years, 9 months, and 15 days in superior, and 5 years, 1 month, and 16 days in inferior grades might now, under Rule 5, Section 65 of the 4th Edition of the Pension Code, voluntarily retire on a superannuation pension.

4. Under the circumstances detailed above I am to request that C. Gopal Rao may be granted the superannuation pension of Rupees (17-8-0) seventeen and Annas eight per mensem, being one-half his average emoluments to which his superior service of upwards of 23 years would ordinarily entitle him.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

OOTACAMUND,
16th September 1879.

Acting Secy. to Govt.

Read the following papers :—

From the District Judge of South Arcot, dated 1st April 1879.

ABSTRACT.—Submitting a register of an application for compensation pension of Rs. 17-8-0 per mensem to Conjeveram Gopal Rao, late Civil Recordkeeper, District Court of South Arcot.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From the Accountant-General, Madras, to the District Judge of South Arcot, dated Fort St. George, 15th May 1879, No. A.D.K.—191.
Audit Department.

Vide your application for pension on behalf of C. Gopal Rao, late Civil Recordkeeper of your Court.

The undersigned has the honor to inquire—

1. What is the country or house name of the applicant and his father.
2. Why a saving of Annas 8 is shown against the name of the applicant in the Pay Abstract for the month of November 1870.

With reference to his remark No. 4 on the 3rd page of the Register of Application, the District Judge will be good enough to state whether he could have certified the applicant unfit for further service owing to his age or infirmity, and therefore recommended him for a superannuation pension were it not for the orders of Government directing the reduction of establishment; as by doing so he will be entitled to superannuation pension but not otherwise—vide Rule 3, Section 65, of the Civil Pension Code, 4th Edition.

The applicant's Service Book is herewith returned for the purpose of Column 7 in the 2nd, and Columns 9 and 12 in the 3rd pages thereof being signed by the applicant and the Head of the Office respectively, and the book retransmitted to this office accompanied by a copy of an order under which the former was suspended for one month from 10th February 1859.

ENCLOSURE No. 2.

From O. B. IRVINE, Esq., District Judge of South Arcot, to the Accountant-General, Madras, dated Cuddalore, 21st May 1879, No. 65.

Your Memorandum of the 15th instant, No. A.D.K.—191.

The country or house names of the applicant and his father are Conjeveram Gopal Rao, and Conjeveram Vasudeva Rao.

2. The 8 annas shown as saving in the Pay Abstract for November 1870 was a fine inflicted upon the applicant for unpunctuality.
3. I have already stated in the pension application that I would not have dispensed with the services of the applicant had it not been for the reduction of establishment under the Order of Government to retire all such officers as had qualified for a pension of the ordinary kind.
4. The copy of the order of suspension asked for in your letter is already embodied in Column 8, page 3, of the Service Book.
5. The insertions required to be made in the Service Book are duly entered and the book herewith returned.

ENCLOSURE No. 3.

From the Accountant-General, Madras, to the District Judge of South Arcot, dated Fort St. George, 2nd June 1879, No. A.D.K.—230.
Audit Department.

Vide your application for pension on behalf of C. Gopal Rao, late a Civil Recordkeeper of your Court, and your reply to this Office Memorandum, No. A.D.K.—191, dated 15th May 1879.

The undersigned has the honor to point out that a superannuation pension can be granted to an applicant only when he has attained to the age of fifty-five, and when the Head of the Department in which he was serving certifies that the applicant was found inefficient owing to age or infirmity as required by Rule 3, Section 65, of the Civil Pension Code, 4th Edition. If it be found impossible to certify to the above effect, Gopal Rao can be admitted only to compensation pension, in which case the requirements of Rules 1 and 6 of Section 59 of the Code should be complied with.

2. The application is herewith returned with a request that if the above view is accepted the District Judge will be good enough to make the necessary alteration therein and retransmit it to this office at an early date.

(Signed) R. C. CHAPMAN,
Offg. Asst. to Accountant-General, for Accountant-General.

ENCLOSURE No. 4.

From O. B. IRVINE, Esq., District Judge of South Arcot, to the Accountant-General, Madras, dated Cuddalore, 9th June 1879, No. 77.

Your Memorandum, dated 2nd instant, No. A.D.K.—230.

According to your suggestion the applicant has been recommended for a compensation pension, and the necessary alterations made in his application, which is herewith retransmitted.

2. With regard to Rule 1, Section 59 of the Code, I have the honor to inform you that the applicant could not be provided with any other employment, there being none available.

As to Rule 6. There is no saving so far as regards the applicant's appointment. Before the introduction of the new scheme, there was one Civil Recordkeeper on Rupees 35 and one Criminal Recordkeeper on Rupees 30. At present there is a Recordkeeper on Rupees 50, and an Assistant on Rupees 15. Although in the individual case there is no saving to Government, I have to observe that there has been a saving on the whole by the introduction of the new scheme, and that in cases like the present the general savings should be taken into account.

No. A.D.J.—187.

Certificate and Report of Accountant-General.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for 28 years, 9 months, and 15 days; but that a compensation pension is not admissible under the provisions of the Civil Pension Code (the calculations have been duly verified), as the abolition of the applicant's appointment consequent on the general revision of Judicial Establishments did not result in a real saving to Government as required by Rule 6, Section 59 of the Code—vide reply of the District Judge to this office Memorandum, No. A.D.K.—230, dated the 2nd June 1879, herewith transmitted, and this office letter to Government, No. 4554, dated the 8th July 1878.

As the applicant's age is over 55 and less than 60 years, and as the total period of his qualifying service amounts to more than 25 years, he would, under ordinary circumstances, be entitled to a superannuation pension not exceeding Rupees 17-8-0 per mensem, under Sections 65, 68 (c), and 70 of the Code. But from the District Judge's remarks opposite to No. 4, on the 3rd page of the application, and from paragraph 3 of his reply to this office Memorandum, No. A.D.K.—191, dated 15th May 1879, also herewith submitted, it is clear that he is unable to certify to the applicant's unfitness for further service, owing to age or infirmity as required in Rule 3, Section 65 of the Code. Under these circumstances, the applicant is equally debarred from a superannuation pension.

Should Government, however, taking into consideration the circumstances of the case, be pleased to grant to the applicant a superannuation pension of Rupees 17-8-0 a-month, to which he would have been eligible had he been certified by the District Judge to be inefficient owing to age or infirmity, it is respectfully requested that such concession be reported to the Government of India for confirmation.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL.

Certified that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in {superior} grades has been duly proved for 28 years 9 months and 15 days; and that a Confirmation {pension} is admissible under {Section 17} of the Civil Pension Code (The calculations have been duly verified) and the abolition of the applicant's appointment in consequence of the general pension of Judicial Establishments.

did not result in a real leaving to Government as required by sub-section 59 of the Code. Vide reply of the District Judge to the Office from 28th dated the 2nd June 1879, herewith transmitted, and the Office letter to Government 8th 654 dated the 8th July 1878. As the applicant's age is over 55 and less than 60 years and as the total period of his qualifying service amounts to more than 25 years he would under ordinary circumstances be entitled to a superannuation pension not exceeding Rupees 17-8-0 per annum under Section 65, 68 (C) and 70 of the Code. But from the District Judge's remarks opposite to 654 on the 3rd page of the application and from para 3 of his reply to this Office memorandum dated 15th May 1879 also herewith submitted, it is clear that he is unable to certify to the aptly counts sufficient for further service, owing to age or infirmity, as required in rule 3 Section 65 of the Code. Under these circumstances the applicant is equally declared from a superannuation Pension.

Should Government taking into consideration the circumstances of the case, be pleased to grant to the applicant a superannuation Pension of Rupees 17-8-0 a month, to which he would have been eligible had he been certified by the District Judge to be infirm, owing to age or infirmity, it is respectfully requested that such concession be reported to the Government of India for confirmation.

DEPARTMENT.

Sir,

In the recent revision of Judicial Establishments in this Presidency, which was reported to the Government of India in the letters marginally noted, the District Judge in South Arcot dispensed with the services of S. Gopal Rao, Civil Record Officer. This man was nearly 55 years of age, and the Judge submitted an application for a superannuation pension for him, but stated he "would rather have dispensed with some other Officer" had not the orders of Government requiring the removal of those eligible for on a superannuation pension.

This is a new rule which came into force on the 26th April, whereas the applicant was removed on the 31st March.

Is application to be made for a superannuation, or a compensation pension?

for pension been "peremptory." On this the Accountant General pointed out that when an applicant is less than 60 years of age the head of the Office must certify him inefficient through age to enable superannuation pension to be passed.

2. In the face of the remark above noticed the Judge could give no such Certificate, and suggested the grant of a compensation pension in lieu of that already recommended, but this class of pension is also considered by the Accountant General to be inadvisable as though there is a saving on the entire scheme there is none in respect of the applicant's appointment.

3. This ruling is technically correct and no retiring allowance can be granted without the sanction of the Government of India though though C. Gopal Rao who had served 28 years 9 months and 15 days in superior, and 5 years 1 month and 16 days in inferior grades might under rule 5 Section 55 of the 1st Edition of the Pension Code voluntarily retire on a superannuation pension.

Under the circumstances detailed above I am to request that C. Gopal Rao may be granted a superannuation pension of Rs. 17-8-1/2 (seventeen and 8/10 annas) being one half his average emoluments to which his superior service of upwards of 23 years more ordinarily entitled him.
