No. 600.

FROM

J. H. GARSTIN, Esq.,
Acting Secretary to Government, Pension Department,

TO

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
HOME, REVENUE, AND AGRICULTURAL DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I am directed to forward the accompanying case for the favorable consideration of His Excellency the Governor-General in Council.

2. The Small Cause Court at Cuddalore, in the South Arcot District, was abolished on the 1st April last, and the services of its Record-keeper, W. Jegannatha Mudelliar, were no longer required. He was then in his fifty-first year, and, as no suitable employment is available, has now been granted a compensation pension of Rupees 8 per mensem, or one-third of his salary.

3. His qualifying service amounts to twenty-four years, nine months and twenty-nine days, or only two months and a day short of the twenty-five years, which would have entitled him to the higher rate of pension, viz., Rupees 12; and His Grace the Governor in Council would recommend this amount being granted him in consideration of his compulsory removal from the service.

4. The monthly saving to Government in the arrangements under which the services of W. Jegannatha Mudelliar were dispensed with is Rupees 14, which will more than meet the pension now proposed.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

OOTACAMUND,
16th September 1879.

Acting Secretary to Government.

Proceedings of Government, dated 14th August 1879, No. 483.

Read the following papers:—

From O. B. IRVINE, Esq., District Judge of South Arcot, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated Cuddalore, 26th March 1879, No. 6.

I have the honor to forward a letter received from the Judge of the Court of Small Causes, hereafter to be Judge of the Sub-Court established from the 1st proximo in this district.

2. The letter solicits the favorable consideration of Government to the cases of W. Jegannatha Mudelliar, the Record-keeper of the Small Cause Court, and P. Subbacharry, the Sheristadar of the Salem Sub-Court, who have been compelled to retire under the order of Government in consequence of their having served for pensions of the ordinary kind, but whose cases are such as are to deserve special consideration.

3. They are both compelled to retire upon pensions calculated at one-third of their respective salaries, because their service for pension falls short by two months and one day in the case of W. Jegannatha Mudelliar and of six months in the case of P. Subbacharry.

4. It seems unusually hard that for lack of a few months' service they should be compelled to retire upon the smaller pension, and I beg to endorse the request of the Small Cause Judge that their cases should be treated exceptionally—that in the case of W. Jegannatha Mudelliar a period passed on sick leave should be allowed to count for pension, or that he should be retained in the service until the few months requisite for qualification be completed, and that in the case of P. Subbacharry, he should similarly be allowed to retain office to complete service for half pension. The order of Government is necessary, because, unless made special cases, we could not retain these men in the service for the few remaining months and then compel their retirement.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From KANJAN MENON, Esq., Acting Judge of the Court of Small Causes, Cuddalore, to the Acting Chief Secretary to Government, dated Cuddalore, 24th March 1879, No. 55.

In submitting the pension application of W. Jegannatha Mudelliar, the Record-keeper of this court, whose services are to be dispensed within in consequence of the abolition of this court, I have the honor to request that the Government, taking the very hardship of his case into their favorable consideration, will, as a special case, sanction the grant of a half pension to him as applied for.

2. He has been in the Government service for twenty-six years, one month and twenty-one days, of which one year, three months, and twenty-two days cannot be counted for pension, being breaks and absence on leave.

3. His total superior service qualifying him for pension then comes to only twenty-four years, nine months and twenty-nine days, which falls short of the required period of twenty-five years by two months and one day.

4. In forming the establishment for the new Sub-Court to be established here in place of the abolished Small Cause Court, the District Judge and I were unable to find employment for him in preference to the several more efficient men who were thrown out of employ by the abolition of the Small Cause Court here and the Sub-Court at Salem, and we felt also further bound to retire him under the terms of the G.O., Judicial Department, dated 11th February last, No. 265, which left no option to the District Judge but "to retire all those who are eligible for pension of the ordinary kind."

5. Acting according to the spirit of this order, and also regard being had for the efficiency of the public service, we were bound to retire him as also P. Subbacharry,* the Sheristadar of the Salem Sub-Court, whose case is similar to that of this Mudelliar; but looking to the fact that they both are so close on their half pension, and that it is by no fault of their own, but by the abolition of the courts, that they have lost the opportunity of completing their service, I am instructed by the District Judge to lay their cases before Government for their especial consideration which the hardship of their cases deserves.

6. Should, however, the Government be pleased to order so, we are prepared to re-employ them in the new court for such length of time only (for to keep them longer would be detrimental to the interest of the public service) as is wanting to complete their twenty-five years of service, provided the Government allow us the liberty of retiring them at the end of that period without regard to any of the other provisions of the Pension Code.

ENCLOSURE No. 2.

From G. MUTHUSWAMY, Esq., Subordinate Judge of Madura, to the Acting Judge of the Court of Small Causes, Cuddalore, dated Madura, 31st January 1878, No. 22.

With reference to the Proceedings of the District Court of Madura, dated 21st January 1878, directing me to furnish you with a copy of the service register of one Jegannatha Mudelliar, present Record-keeper of your court and formerly a Writer in the late Sub-Court at Madura from 1852 to 1862, together with a statement of any leave he has taken during that time, I have the honor to forward herewith copy of the general register of services of the establishment kept in the late Sub-Court of Madura, which contains the history of his service from 1852 to December 1861, and to state that it appears from the pay indents of 1862 that he obtained leave of absence on private affairs for five months from 21st February 1862, and that the court was abolished on the 1st July before the expiration of the said leave.

ENCLOSURE No. 3.

Memorandum from the Accountant-General, Madras, to the District Judge, South Arcot, dated Fort St. George, 8th May 1879, No. 167-A.D.K.

Audit Department.

Vide your application for pension on behalf of W. Jegannatha Mudelliar, late Record-keeper, Small Cause Court, Cuddalore.

The undersigned has the honor to inquire

- (1) With reference to Rule I, Section 50, of the Civil Pension Code, whether any endeavours were made to employ the applicant in some other office; if so, for what reasons it was found impossible to provide suitable employment for him.
- (2) Whether the pay of the applicant's appointment was fully saved to Government. If not, the District Judge will explain the grounds on which he recommended him for compensation pension (vide Rule V, Section 50, of the Civil Pension Code).

Please forward to this office a copy of the verified list of the services of the applicant referred to in letter, No. 22, of 31st January 1878, received from the Subordinate Judge, Madura.

The applicant's service book is herewith returned with a request that the several kinds of leave (other than casual) which may have been enjoyed may be noted as required by Rule III, Section 72, of the Civil Pension Code, and the reason of termination of each of the several appointments held by him subsequent to 11th March 1858 inserted in column 11 on page 3, and the book retransmitted to this office at an early date after the above insertions have been duly attested by the head of the office.

(Signed) R. C. CHAPMAN,
Offg. Asst. to Accountant-General,
for Accountant-General.

ENCLOSURE No. 4.

From O. B. IRVINE, Esq., District Judge of South Arcot, to the Accountant-General, Madras, dated Cuddalore, 19th May 1879, No. 64.

Your memorandum of the 8th instant, No. 167-A.D.K.

2. In reply to the first query, I have the honor to state that there being no offices in the Judicial Department available, it was impossible to provide the Record-keeper Jegannatha Mudelliar with other employment.

I do not understand by Rule I, Section 50, that application is to be made to other departments, such as Revenue, Public Works, Police, &c., to obtain employment for an officer discharged. If so, what is to be the limit to such applications?

3. In reply to Query No. 2, I remark that there has been a saving to Government in the arrangement which necessitated this application for compensation pension to Jegannatha Mudelliar.

It is not necessary under Rule V, Section 50, as apparently held by the Officiating Assistant to the Accountant-General (for Accountant-General), that the pay of the applicant's appointment should be fully saved to Government. "The saving must exceed the cost of the pension," and this is so in the present instance.

The appointment of Record-keeper in the Salem Sub-Court on a salary of Rupees 30 and of the Record-keeper in the Cuddalore Small Cause Court on a salary of Rupees 24 were abolished and one Record-keeper on a salary of Rupees 40 appointed. The compensation pension proposed for Jegannatha Mudelliar is Rupees 12. Hence there is a saving of Rupees 2, which is all that is necessary.

4. The verified list of Jegannatha Mudelliar's services called for in your letter is herewith forwarded.

5. The necessary insertions as to leave, &c., required to be shown in service book have been entered and the service book is herewith returned.

ENCLOSURE No. 5.

Memorandum from the Accountant-General, Madras, to the District Judge, South Arcot, dated Fort St. George, 9th June 1879, No. 239-A.D.K.
Audit Department.

Vide your application for pension on behalf of W. Jegannatha Mudelliar, late a Record-keeper, Small Cause Court, Cuddalore, and your reply to this office memorandum, No. 167-A.D.K., dated 8th May 1879.

The undersigned has the honor to request that the District Judge will be good enough to state whether the present Record-keeper on Rupees 40 per mensem referred to in paragraph 6 of the above reply is the same person who held the Record-keepership in the Salem Sub-Court. If not, the Judge is requested to be so good as to explain how an application for pension or gratuity on behalf of that individual, if preferred, should be disposed of with reference to Rules I and VI, Section 59, of the Civil Pension Code, 4th Edition.

(Signed) R. C. CHAPMAN,
Offg. Asst. to Accountant-General,
for Accountant-General.

ENCLOSURE No. 6.

From O. B. IRVINE, Esq., District Judge of South Arcot, to the Accountant-General, dated Cuddalore, 13th June 1879, No. 80.

Your memorandum, dated 9th instant, No. 239-A.D.K.

The present Record-keeper of the Cuddalore Sub-Court was not the Record-keeper of the late Salem Sub-Court, but was the Nazir of that court.

The late Record-keeper of the Salem Sub-Court has been made Head Gumastah of the District Munsif's Court at Dharampuri in the Salem District, and so no application for pension or gratuity will now be made on his behalf.

No. 197-A.D.J.

Certificate and Report of Accountant-General.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for twenty-four years, nine months and twenty-nine days, and that a compensation pension not exceeding Rupees 8 per mensem, equal to one-third of the applicant's average emoluments, is admissible under Sections 59 and 68 (b) of the Civil Pension Code, Fourth Edition. The calculations have been duly verified. With reference to Rule 1 under Section 59 of the Code the District Judge, in his reply to this office objection memorandum, No. 167-A.D.K., dated 19th ultimo, states that there being no offices in the Judicial Department available it was found impossible to provide the applicant with a suitable employment elsewhere, and that in accordance with Rule 6 of the same section he reports that the amount of saving effected to Government in the arrangement made in consequence of the retirement of the applicant from service is Rupees 14 per mensem. Any amount of pension that will be sanctioned to him should be met from this saving.

It will be seen from a few of the accompanying papers that the District Judge, in view to the applicant being granted a half-pay pension, to which he would have been eligible had he been permitted to remain in service for a period of two months and one day longer, when he would complete twenty-five years' service, recommends that the period during which the applicant was absent on leave on medical certificate should, as a special case, be allowed to count as service qualifying for pension, a case not provided for in the Civil Pension Code. Should Government, however, be pleased to grant the applicant a half-pay pension as recommended by the District Judge, taking into consideration the fact that he was thrown out of employ through no fault of his own, but by the reorganization of establishments in the Judicial Department, it is respectfully pointed out that such concession will need the confirmation of the Government of India.

The case of P. Subbacharry, Sheristadar of the late Subordinate Judge's Court at Salem, referred to in the accompanying letter from the District Judge, No. 6, dated the 26th March 1879, having been disposed of in G.O., No. 1063, dated 9th May last, Judicial Department, a report on his case is now deemed unnecessary.

FORT ST. GEORGE,

To the Under-Secretary to Government, Pension Department.

ORDER THEREON, 14th August 1879, No. 483.

Under Sections 59 and 68 (b) of the Civil Pension Code (Fourth Edition) His Grace the Governor in Council is pleased to grant to Woottheramallore Jegannatha Mudelliar, late Record-keeper, Small Cause Court, Cuddalore, a compensation pension of Rupees (8) eight per mensem in consideration of his qualifying superior service of twenty-four years, nine months and twenty-nine days, payable from the 1st April 1879.

2. The Acting Judge's recommendation that the applicant be granted a pension equal to half his emoluments is under consideration.
