19th June 1879.

Certified that I have carefully examined Joseph Lykes a warder in the Cotacambus European Prison.
His age is, by his own statement $58\frac{7}{12}$ years and by appearance about 58 I consider Joseph Lykes to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service as a warder in the Cotacambus European Prison in the Jail Department to which he belongs in consequence of being subject to Lumbago.
His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.
