No. 741.

My father Syed Ali, a police peon Chodavara Talug, having died in 1841, I was granted some as his heir by the then Collector Mr. Arbuthnot. A few days after that Mr. Conway came here as Collector.
At first I received a salary of Rs 3 a month.
A few days afterwards, Mr. Conway raised the salary of all peons to Rs 4, my salary also being made Rs 4. I remained in the Talug from the time I was entertained in service until the organization of the new police in 1861. I was 15 years old when I was employed. My age now may be upwards of 52.
I remember the period of my service in the police to be 21 years, which added to service in the new police, makes about 42 years. I never was fined or suspended, or dismissed. I can prove the truth of the statement by the testimony of Garaj and Vata Kaimayya. I have heard the

I know Vanya Sanyasi. In 1841, when Arbuthnot was Collector, Sanyasi was appointed a police peon of Chodavaram Talug, father Syed Ali, the incumbent of that post having died. Since that time Sanyasi remained the same Talug until the organization of the police in 1861, which he entered with the peons of the Talug. He then was under years of age, and may now be 54 years

Mr Conway came here as Collector a few years after Sanyasi was employed and raised salary of all the peons to Rs 4. The length of service in the old police may be 21 years. He was never suspended nor dismissed from the old police. I know well about having served sometime with his father
