Civil Disfranchising Chinghap
30th July 1879

P. Moorhead Esq. Pillay Salt Assint.
Superintendent Chinghap District is prematurely old, that is assuming his age to be only 50 years. He said his work was that of a Writer and that he is fit for further service in that capacity. Seeing that he was very shaky on his legs and that his head and arms were constantly trembling I gave him a pen to write with but he had no proper control over it and could not put down anything that was intelligible.
His muscles are small soft and shrunken and there is commencing Cataract in both eyes.
His circulation is also very weak and there are indications of defective heart's action. I therefore think the late Dr. Zilleh Surgeon Chinghap was justified in giving him accompanying Certificate.
