From the Day abstracts of the Huzar Est^t, it is observed that Chikamappa referred to was appointed as Acting Treasury Sumastah on full pay (20 Rs) from 1 October 1859 while the permanent incumbent was on sick duty. He was eventually confirmed on 15 Rs in the same department on 1 July 1860; & so he was shown as Treasury Sumastah from that date.

2 The copy of the annual return of Establishment of 1859 maintained in this office being found torn, it is found too difficult to verify the individuals' service accurately when pension application was prepared.

3 The individuals' service register is herewith returned duly signed as required.
