I have the honor to submit, for the orders of Government, an application* from the Collector, Kistna District, for the payment of the gratuity, amounting to Rupees 114, due to the heirs of the late D. Adinarayana, Classifier, Revenue Settlement Department, payable at Kistna District Treasury.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From J. G. HORSFALL, Esq., Collector of the Kistna District, to the Accountant-General, dated Masulipatam, 16th December 1878, No. 2758.

In G.O., No. 516, dated 25th September 1877, a sum of Rupees 114 was sanctioned as gratuity to be paid to Dantu Adinarayana, late Classifier, Revenue Settlement Department, Kistna District, and this payment was also authorized in your office No. 40 of 10th October 1877.

2. But Adinarayana having died before the receipt of the Government Order, and an injunction of the District Munsif of Guntoor having been received prohibiting payment of the same to any body, pending the disposal of a civil suit between the widow and brothers of the deceased, no payment was made.

3. The District Munsif now requests that the sum of Rupees 114 may be disbursed to the widow and brothers of the late Adinarayana as per margin.

4. As the time from its original sanction has exceeded six months, I request that you will be good enough to authorize the payment of Rupees 114 to the parties.

Official Memorandum from C. D. MACLEAN, Esq., Acting Under Secretary to Government, to the Collector of the Kistna District, dated Fort St. George, 9th April 1879, No. 3.

The Collector of Kistna District is requested to explain, with reference to his letter to the address of the Accountant-General, dated 16th December 1878, No. 2758, under what rule he has recommended the division of the gratuity sanctioned to D. Adinarayana, late Classifier, Revenue Settlement Department, Kistna District, in G.O., dated 25th September 1877, No. 516, between his widow and brothers.

From J. G. HORSFALL, Esq., Collector of the Kistna District, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Masulipatam, 29th September 1879, No. 2189.

With reference to the Under Secretary's official memorandum, No. 3, dated 9th April last, I have the honor to report as follows.

2. In G.O., No. 516, of 25th September 1877, a gratuity of Rupees 114 was sanctioned to one Dantu Adinarayana for his services in the Revenue Settlement Department, but he died before the receipt of the order. His widow Ademma presented an arzi stating that her husband's brothers had fraudulently obtained a certificate of heirship from the District Court; that she was going to file a suit for the cancelment thereof; and requesting that, until she established her claim, the sum in question might not be paid to her husband's brothers. She also caused an injunction to be issued from the Court prohibiting the payment of the sum in question to other parties. Accordingly the payment of gratuity was withheld. The widow brought a suit in the Court and obtained a decree to the effect that of the gratuity, Rupees 114, sanctioned by Government Rupees 46-11-5 should be given to her, and the remainder, Rupees 67-4-7, to the two brothers of the deceased. The Court then removed the injunction which had been issued by it at first. But as by this time six months had elapsed since the date of Government sanction, the Accountant-General was addressed to sanction the payment of the sums above referred to, to the parties.

ORDER THEREON, 23rd October 1879, No. 691.
