1 Darampuri is the country name of the applicant and his father.

2. Applicant resigned his service and applied for pension on the 18th July 1878. Thereupon he was sent to the Zillah surgeon who examined and granted him Medical Certificate on the 30th Idem. As he was not serving in the Department from the 19th he was considered to be out of employ from that date.

is a temporary one, the applicant's detachment as Tope Peon was on the understanding that he would return to his permanent duty when the temporary duty ceased. This fact is substantiated by his name being shown in the annual list of peons for 1868-69.

4 No leave statement has been maintained for inferior servants. The applicant does not however appear to have had any leave ever since his return from temporary duty.

5 The term "resigned" used in Column 11 of the 3rd page of the applicant's Service Book is a mistake for that "retired".

6 Column 18 in the first page and that "how verified" in the 2nd page have been duly filled up and the Pension application retransmitted herewith.
