Pension.

Read the following papers:—

From the District Judge of North Arcot, dated 7th June 1879, No. 11.
" Officiating Assistant Accountant-General, dated 30th Sept. 1879, No. A.D.J.—441.

Order thereon, 13th November 1879, No. 750.

V. Venkat Rao was formerly Record-keeper of the Court of Small Causes at Vellore, but lost his appointment on the 26th May 1877 on the abolition of that Court, when his qualifying service in superior grades was about nine months less than the twenty-five years which would have entitled him to a compensation pension equal to half his average emoluments. He accordingly made no application for any compensation retiring allowance, but after being a few months without employment he obtained at first an acting, and subsequently a permanent, post in the District Court at Chittoor. On the 1st April last when he had completed a qualifying superior service of twenty-five years and nine days his services were dispensed with on the reorganization of Judicial Establishments, and on the 2nd May before he could submit an application for the pension due to him he died.

2. Under these circumstances, and in view of the fact that he was too ill to appear before a Medical Officer, the District Judge now submits an application for an invalid pension on behalf of V. Venkat Rao, but, though it is probable that he was incapacitated by ill-health for further service, the immediate cause of his removal from the service was apparently the reorganization of establishments.

3. The Governor in Council resolves, therefore, to sanction the grant, in the name of V. Venkat Rao, of a compensation pension of Rs. 11-8-2 or half his average emoluments, payable in arrears to his legal heir from the 1st April last.

4. Copy of these Proceedings will be forwarded to the Government of India.

A His appointment appears in the Diary of this Court & not in the Pay abstract.

B His services were dispensed with from 1 January 1847 as his brother in law was made Munsiff of the same Court -

C The Applicant states that during the adjournment of the late Small Cause Court Vellore from 17 April to 18 June 1871 he went on pilgrimage to Benares &c.; that as he could not return in time, he applied about 1 June 1871 by a letter from Benares to the Judge for 1 month's leave on private affairs from 19 June 71; that as no reply was sent to him he thought that his application was complied with & availed himself of 26 days; & that he returned to his duty on the 15 July 1871 when he was informed by the then Head Clerk (deceased) that his application was received & that as no leave was granted to him his name was entered in the leave statement as absent without leave. It is impracticable to send in support of his statement a copy of his application for the said leave as the original is not forthcoming. He further says that if the matter be referred to W. Chendrasakariah (late Head Clerk, Small Cause Court & Nazir in the District Court) & C. Bujunga Row & V. Runganatha Row (Servants of the late Small Cause Court & now in the District Court of North Arcot) they will testify to the receipt of the application in the Office & adds that Venkatagopal Rao, Subordinate Judge, Bellary, was with him at Benares & knew of his having made the application

& that the matter should, if necessary, be referred to him. There being thus no fault on the part of the applicant, the above absence cannot be held to have caused a break in the service.

D. The said Court was abolished from 1 April 77 but his services were retained until 26 May 77 (vide copy of G. O. No. 1229 dated 29 May 77 & copies of H. C. Proceedings dated 16 July 77 Nos. 1452 & 1453). See Bill

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT GENERAL.

Certified that qualifying Service in Superior Grades has been duly proved for 25 years and 9 days; but that no retiring allowance would seem to be admissible under the Provisions of Section 62 of the Civil Pension Code 4th Edition as the applicant's incapacity for further service was not established by a Medical Certificate.

Should Government in consideration of the applicant's long service extending over a period of 25 years, be pleased to overlook the omission on the part of the applicant to produce Medical Certificate of unfitness for further Service in support of his application for Pension, it may grant him an Invalid Pension not exceeding Rs 11-8-2 per mensem equal to ½ of his average emoluments under Sections 61 and 68(c) of the Civil Pension Code 4th Edition. But the grant of such a Pension, it is respectfully pointed out, should be reported to the Govt. of India for confirmation.

It will be seen from the District Judge's letter No. 11 dated the 7th June last, that the applicant died on the 2d May 79; any arrears of Pension which the Govt. may be pleased to sanction, should be made payable to V. Krishnayya, the son of the deceased applicant. Vide Para 3 of the District Judge's reply to this Office Memo: No. A S K / 359 dated the 25th July 1879.

It will further be seen from the entry opposite to No. 11 on the 1st Page of the application that the District Judge recommended the applicant for a Pension of Rs 12-1-2 in lieu of Rs 11-8-2 per mensem to which latter only he would seem to be entitled under the rules. The difference, it is presumed, is due to the inclusion in the calculation of average emoluments of acting allowances drawn by the applicant during the last 5 years of his Service, & is inadmissible under Clause (c) Section 80 of the Civil Pension Code.

The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the District Judge in his No. 11 dated the 7th June last.

North Arcot
No 11 District Court
Chittoor 7th June 1879.

From
C. G. Plumer Esqre
District Judge of North Arcot.

To
The Accountant General
Fort Saint George.

Sir,

I have the honor to forward herewith an application for pension on behalf of V. Venkat Row late 2nd Gumasta of this Court together with his Service Book and to state that he died on the night of 2nd Ultimo & that pension is due to him from 1st April 1879 as under the new scale his services were dispensed with from that date.

The delay in sending this application is

is owing to non production by him of a medical certificate as to his physical unfitness for further service. He was not able to produce one as he was too ill to appear before the Doctor.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
your most Obedient Servant.

~~Pension No 691~~

J. Venkat Rao was formerly record keeper of the Court of Small Causes at ~~Chitt~~ Vellore but lost his appointment on the 26th May 77 on the abolition of that court when his qualifying service in superior grades was about nine months less than the twenty five years which would

is owing to non production
of a medical certificate as have entitled him to a compen:=sation pension equal to 1/2 his average emolu:=ments. He accordingly made no application for any compen:=sation & retiring allowance but after a few months being without employment he obtained at first an acting, & subsequently, a permanent, post in the District Court at Chittoor. On the 6th April last when he had completed a qualifying service of 25 yrs — mos 9 days his services were dispensed with on the reorganization of Judicial Establish:=ment and on the 2nd May before he could submit an application for the pension due to him he died.

2. Under these circum:=stances & in view of the fact that he was too ill to appear before a medical officer the Dist. Judge

is owing to non production
of a medical certificate as

Judge now submits an application for an invalid pension on behalf of V. Venkat-Rao, but, though it is probable that he was incapacitated by ill health for further service the immediate cause of his removal from the service was apparently the reorganization of establishments.

3. The Govt. in Council resolves therefore to sanction the grant ~~of the compens~~ in the name of V. Venkat-Rao of a compensation pension of Rs 11, 8, 2 at 1/3 his average emoluments payable [illegible] in arrears to his legal heirs from the 1st April last
