THE HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES

From the first settlement to the present

The first settlement in the United States was made by the Pilgrims in 1620. They came to the New World to seek religious freedom and to establish a new society based on their own principles.

The Pilgrims were joined by other settlers, and the colony grew. In 1630, a large group of Puritans arrived, seeking a more strictly religious community. They established the Massachusetts Bay Colony.

The colonies continued to grow and develop. By the mid-17th century, they had established a strong sense of self-government and independence from England.

The American Revolution broke out in 1775, as the colonies fought for their independence from British rule. The war ended in 1781 with the British surrender at Yorktown.

The new nation was founded on the principles of liberty, justice, and equality. The Constitution was drafted in 1787, establishing a framework for the government.

The United States has since grown into a powerful nation, playing a leading role in world affairs. It has been a beacon of hope and freedom for people around the world.
