From

J. H. GARSTIN, Esq.,
Acting Secretary to the Government of Fort St. George,

To

The SECRETARY to the GOVERNMENT of INDIA,
Home, Revenue, and Agricultural Department.

Sir,

I am directed to forward, for the information of the Government of India, copy of the Proceedings of the Madras Government, dated 13th November 1879, No. 750, in the case of V. Venkat Row, lately an Acting Gumastah in the District Court of North Arcot.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Ootacamund,
18*th November* 1879.

Acting Secy. to Govt.

Read the following papers:—

From the District Judge of North Arcot, dated 7th June 1879, No. 11.
" Officiating Assistant Accountant-General, dated 30th Sept. 1879, No. A.D.J.—441.

Order thereon, 13th November 1879, No. 750.

V. Venkat Rao was formerly Record-keeper of the Court of Small Causes at Vellore, but lost his appointment on the 26th May 1877 on the abolition of that Court, when his qualifying service in superior grades was about nine months less than the twenty-five years which would have entitled him to a compensation pension equal to half his average emoluments. He accordingly made no application for any compensation retiring allowance, but after being a few months without employment he obtained at first an acting, and subsequently a permanent, post in the District Court at Chittoor. On the 1st April last when he had completed a qualifying superior service of twenty-five years and nine days his services were dispensed with on the reorganization of Judicial Establishments, and on the 2nd May before he could submit an application for the pension due to him he died.

2. Under these circumstances, and in view of the fact that he was too ill to appear before a Medical Officer, the District Judge now submits an application for an invalid pension on behalf of V. Venkat Rao, but, though it is probable that he wa incapacitated by ill-health for further service, the immediate cause of his removal from the service was apparently the reorganization of establishments.

3. The Governor in Council resolves, therefore, to sanction the grant, in th name of V. Venkat Rao, of a compensation pension of Rs. 11-8-2 or half his averag emoluments, payable in arrears to his legal heir from the 1st April last.

4. Copy of these Proceedings will be forwarded to the Government of India.
