THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
FINANCE AND COMMERCE DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I am directed to forward, for the favorable consideration of the Governor-General in Council, the accompanying case of Jeyram Sing, lately a First-class Constable in the district of Tanjore.

2. This Constable was invalidated in January after a service of nineteen years, three months, and twenty-six days in the Revenue Department, and nine years, nine months, and twelve days in the Police. He would have been entitled to a pension of Rs. 4, or half his average salary, if he had completed thirty years' service. The amount admissible to him under special rules for the Police was Rs. 3-1-0, and this has been granted.

3. The applicant, who was when invalided sixty years of age, is stated to have been "a well-behaved and deserving Constable" who "had no defaulter entries whatever during his service of nineteen-and-a-quarter years in the Police." He would have been retained on light duty for the further term necessary to complete thirty years' service, but was considered unfit even for such work.

4. In consideration of Jeyram Sing's long service and exemplary conduct, I am to request that the deficiency in his service may be condoned and a pension of Rs. 3-12-0 granted him.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

OOTACAMUND,
