(6) The entries in the service book shew that the applicant was promoted from apprentice to Gumastah on Rs 20 with effect from 1st July 1858 but from the Audit Registers of this Office it appears that he was not promoted to that pay until 1st May 1859. The period between the two dates has accordingly been shown as non-qualifying. The fact of it being so treated does not in any way affect the pension to which the applicant is shown to be entitled, as he will still have rendered a qualifying service of over 15 years and less than 25 years service.

7 The applicants services were dispensed with in consequence of the general reduction of Public Works Establishment.

The period of the applicant's appointment as Famine Accountant on Rs 40/- per mensem from 8th December 1877 to 28th February 1878 has been omitted in the service book and the application for gratuity but as the entire period of the applicant's services has been verified from the records of this Office, the return of the documents for completion was considered unnecessary as only delaying the submission of the applicant's papers for the orders of Government.
