GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

11th November 1880, No. 1087.

Gratuity.

Read the following papers :—

From J. C. HUGHESDON, Esq., Acting District Judge of South Arcot, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Cuddalore, 9th February 1880, No. 1.

Under Section 85 of the Pension Code, I have the honor to forward, for the favorable consideration of Government, an application for gratuity on behalf of Vencanna Charry, late an Amin of the Court of the District Munsif of Villupuram.

No. 1012-A.D.J.

Certificate and Report of Accountant-General.

Certified that, should Government be pleased, with reference to Rule 2 under Section 85, to accept the medical certificate post-dated to the extent of fifteen days, qualifying service in superior grades will amount to four years, ten months, and nine days, and that an invalid gratuity not exceeding Rs. 48, equal to four months' pay, will be admissible under Sections 61 and 76 (a) of the Civil Pension Code, 4th Edition. The calculations have been duly verified.

2. Although the applicant's qualifying service began after the 20th January 1871 and after he attained the age of twenty-five years, the proviso under Section 70 has not been made applicable in accordance with the note under Section 68, since the incapacity for further service is reported to have been due to blindness and general debility, and the age at the time of retirement was only forty-nine years as calculated from the date of birth given in the application and in the service book. The case would seem to be similar to the one disposed of in G.O., No. 627, of the 23rd June last.

3. The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the Munsif in his letter, No. 33, of the 10th July 1880, herewith submitted.

4. In accordance with Rule 3-A under Section 87, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 22 of the Code.

To

The District Judge of

Sir, With reference to the Distt Court's Proceedings No 57 dated 14th June last, I have the honor to submit explanation on the several questions raised by the Acctt General in his letter No 285+ dated 17th April 1880, which was received with the Proceedings abovenamed.

+ herewith returned.

As regards the first point, The Amin Venkannachary presented an application for pension on the 1st October 1879 and produced medical certificate on the 15th. The records were then searched for to ascertain the correctness of the history of his service found found in his statement. Then the list of service was sent to the Acctt General on the 2d Decr last, for verification. On receiving back the same on the 31st Decr 79 the application for gratuity on his behalf was prepared and forwarded to the District Court on the 26th Jany 1880. The application was returned by that Court for Correction of certain errors which it pointed out, on the 30th of the same month. The mistakes were Corrected and the application was submitted again on the 5th Febry 80. Correspondence of this character and the novelty of an application of this kind to this Court, Combined to produce delay in the submission of the application.

2. On the 2d point raised; The application for pension of this amin

Amin, who was on leave on forfeiture of full pay, was received on the 1st Octr last, when he was ordered to produce a medical certificate which he did not do up to the 15th. The Amin was therefore shewn as having quitted the service on the 1st Octr 79. Under the Circumstances of this Case it would make no difference in the Amount of pension or gratuity whether this Amin was regarded as having ceased to serve from the 1st or the 15th Octr.

I beg to state that this Amin was not newly employed in 1873 but was on the batta Establishment from 1845 and therefore began to draw salary from Augt 73, when the batta Establishment was converted into stipendiary one. I have entered such Amendments amendments as I am called upon to make in the application by the Acctt General's letter under notice and I find that the Amin under the rule pointed out in the said letter is entitled to only Rs 6-6-4.
