Proceedings of Government, Pension Department, dated 1st April 1880, No. 289.

Read also the following papers:—

Official Memorandum to the Accountant-General, dated 27th May 1880, No. 34.

From A. C. TUPP, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Ootacamund, 2nd August 1880, No. 810-N.

Treasury Account Department.

With reference to your Memorandum, No. 34, dated the 27th May 1880, directing this office to ascertain from the Collector of Chingleput the circumstances under which the services of T. Runga Pillai, late a Clerk, Salt Division, Attipet, as Fee Accountant (Kanakapillai) from the 16th February 1848 to 5th May 1853, were considered temporary, I have the honor to forward copies of this office reference to the Collector of Chingleput, and of his reply, from which you will observe that Runga Pillai did not hold a substantive office on a Permanent Establishment of Government as required by the provisions of Section 27 of the Civil Pension Code. Further, the omission of his name from the annual returns on record in this office for the years from 1848 to 1853 proves that the appointment held should have been viewed at that time as merely temporary. Under these circumstances, this office concurs with the Collector in thinking that the above period of service should be regarded as non-qualifying for pension.

The enclosures to the memorandum under reply are herewith returned.

ENCLOSURE No. 1.

From A. C. TUPP, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, to the Collector of Chingleput, dated Fort St. George, 12th June 1880, No. 386—A.D.K.

Treasury Account Department.

With reference to your Treasury Deputy's reply to this office Objection Memorandum, No. 215—A.D.K., dated the 26th May 1879, I have the honor to inquire, for the information of Government, why the services of T. Runga Pillai, late a Clerk, Attipet Salt Division, from 16th February 1848 to 5th May 1853, as Rayassum Kanakapillai (Accountant), on Rs. 10-8-0 per mensem, was considered temporary and therefore non-qualifying for pension. If there be any authority forthcoming among the records of your office for considering the above appointment as a temporary one, I beg to be favored with a copy thereof.

2. The papers connected with the case are herewith forwarded, and I solicit the favor of an early reply to this reference.

No. 3162.

REPLY.

No records are forthcoming to show that the service of Runga Pillai, late Clerk, Attipet Salt Division, as Rayassum Kanakapillai (Accountant), on Rs. 10-8-0 per mensem, was a temporary one, but from the vernacular records it appears that the establishment in question was entered below the Permanent Establishment, vide vernacular list, translation of which is herewith transmitted.

2. If the post of Rayassum Kanakapillai was a permanent one and sanctioned by Government, it would have been included in the detailed annual list of establishment submitted to the Accountant-General, and it was therefore thought to be of a temporary nature.

3. The original enclosures are herewith returned.

SAIDAPET,

(Signed) J. F. PRICE,
Collector.

ORDER THEREON, 13th November 1880, No. 1091.

Under Section 78-A, Clause (2) b, of the Civil Pension Code, the Government resolve, in supersession of their Order of the 1st April 1880, No. 287, to grant to Terumayishi Runga Pillai a pension of Rs. (9) nine per mensem for his qualifying superior service of twenty-four years, nine months, and five days.

2. T. Runga Pillai is entitled to the difference between the higher rate of pension sanctioned in this Government Order and that granted by G.O., 1st April 1880, No. 287. The amount of arrears due to him will be disbursed accordingly.

Pension Department.

With reference to the orders of Government, No. 1091, dated the 13th November 1880, Pension Department, sanctioning the grant to Thirumayishi Ranga Pillai, late a Clerk, Attiput Salt Division, Chingleput District, of an increased rate of pension of Rs. 9 in lieu of a pension of Rs. 6-10-8 only per mensem, already sanctioned in G.O., No. 287, dated the 1st April 1880, I have the honor respectfully to point out that, under the rules in force at the time of the applicant's discharge in October 1878, a pension of Rs. 6-10-8 only could be granted to him.

2. The present increased grant would seem to be based on a concession made by the Government of India upwards of fifteen months subsequent to the date of Ranga Pillai's retirement from the service.

3. I beg, therefore, that His Grace the Governor in Council will, in the circumstances, be pleased, with reference to the provisions of Sections 6 and 89 of the Civil Pension Code, Fourth Edition, to reconsider the order under acknowledgment, or to forward that order to the Government of India in the Financial Department for confirmation.
