District Court, Kistna.
Masulipatam.
7th September 1880.

From
The District Judge
Kistna.

To The Accountant General
Madras.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. $\frac{\text{A.D.K.}}{390}$ dated 15th June last, I have the honor to supply the information required on the points referred to.

No. 9 - The delay was due in part to the applications having been made late by the Applicants for gratuity and in part to the necessity for sending the Statements of their services to the District Court at Ganjam for verification.

No. 17 - Orders were issued to all the Subordinate Courts in this this District to provide suitable appointments for the servants who were thrown out of employment in consequence of the abolition of their appointments in the revision of Establishments and many of them were provided for but the applicants had to wait for vacancies.

I am unable to state the amount of saving effected to Government by the abolition of the applicant's appointments in the revision of Establishment, as I have no means of ascertaining it.

No. 20 The service claimed by the Applicant has, in my opinion, been established and should be admitted.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most Obedient Servt.

D. Lud
Acting District Judge.
