REMARKS BY HEAD OF OFFICE.

1. As to character and past conduct of Applicant.
The character of the applicant is such as to have him rank as a trustworthy man. He is a native of India and has been in the service of the Government for many years. He is a native of India and has been in the service of the Government for many years.
2. Explanation of any suspension or degradation.
The applicant was suspended from 5th January 1877 to 24th January 1879 on account of certain irregularities in his accounts. He was reinstated on 24th January 1879.
3. Regarding any gratuity or pension already received by Applicant. See Chapter XX.
The applicant has received a gratuity of Rs. 7-8-0 on 24th January 1879. He is now entitled to a pension of Rs. 100 per month.
4. Explanation under Section 47, Rule 1, so far as the Head of the Office can give it.
The applicant is a native of India and has been in the service of the Government for many years. He is a native of India and has been in the service of the Government for many years.

In the details of the applicant's service from 1862 to 1880, the applicant's family name has been erroneously entered as Veluping in lieu of the correct name Velupingalloor. The service claimed has been established and should be admitted. The service book is in the hands of the collector. The delay in the submission of the application is unavoidable. The applicant was required to submit information in July last in this office to furnish information regarding his service in the Madras Presidency, but he could not do so until 11th August. See Enclosure B.

SIR,

With reference to your Application for Pension on behalf of V. Chokalingah Mudaliar, late Gumnastah, Mannargudy Deputy Tahsildar's Office in Chidambaram Taluk, I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to inform me why the applicant's name is omitted from the Annual Return of 1857, and why the affix to his name is entered in the Returns for 1861 and 1863 on record in this Office, as Tilly, instead of Mudaliar as shown in the application.

The undersigned has the honor to state that, as the Annual Returns of Establishments up to 1861 are not forthcoming here, it cannot be ascertained why the applicant's name has been omitted in the Return of 1857. The entry of his title as "Pillay" instead of "Mudaliar" in the Returns for 1861 and 1863 must have been a mistake and it is requested that the necessary correction may be made. In the office copy of the Annual Return for 1863 on record here, the correct title of "Mudaliar" is given.
