Proceedings of the Board of Revenue dated 5th February 1864

Read letter from the Collector of Tuckinopoly dated 28th January 1864
No. 19.

The Board consider that the Sheristadar is greatly to blame for a most reprehensible irregularity, and that the subordinates concerned are also most blame worthy for their part in the matter: but the Board do not think that the case is one of moral delinquency calling for dismissal or suspension from the public service: and they are unable to support the Collector in his decision. The Collector will please to restore the parties to their former posts with a very severe reprimand and with the infliction of such fine not exceeding half a month's pay as he may think fit to inflict.

The Board have reason to believe that the Account department in the Collector's office is in a most unsatisfactory condition: and that the rules prescribed in regard to the accounts are not observed. They desire to be informed why the day book is kept in the Vernacular instead of in English, why the English Accountant is not held responsible for the entries in the day book, and whether the Deputy Collector signs the English account.
