8 The Last Pay Certificate is herewith forwarded.

20 As the records of the Income Tax office are not forthcoming either in the Collector's office of Madras or Chingleput, I am unable to explain the omission of the applicant's name in the annual return for 1861. The Deputy Dy Collector at Saidapet says that the applicant's name might have been omitted in the annual list of Establishment for 1864-65 as he was in those years employed as Head Clerk under Mauaivari Dy Collector on special duty.

21. I am unable to explain the discrepancies pointed out as the Collector of Madras informs me that the records of the Income Tax & License Tax offices between the years 1860 & 1867 are not forthcoming. The two appointments of abstract writer on Rs 30 & English writer on Rs 25 per mensem said to have been held by the applicant in 1862 & 1863 respectively, may be substituted for the post of Interpreter on Rs 40, although in one of the certificates granted to him by the Secretary to the Income Tax Commissioner, it is said that the applicant held the office of a writer & Hindustani Interpreter to the Special Commissioner, Income Tax office; but the rate of salary & duration of employment are not specified.

22. The applicant, it would appear, had retained a lien on his permanent appointment during the period of his employment in temporary duties. Vide letter No. 229 dated 3 May 1880 from the Treasury Dy Collector, Saidapet.

13. The specific opinion of the Head of office is noted against No. 5 in the Pension Roll.

VIDE ~~your~~ Application for Pension ^{and} Gratuity on behalf of Babu Muham. mad Ghouse Sahib, late Head Clerk Cantonment Magistrate and Small Cause Court Trichinopoly

THE undersigned has the honor to enquire

1. Why it was found impossible to allow the applicant full three months' notice of the abolition of his appointment and his consequent discharge as prescribed in rule 2 under Section 84 of the Civil Pension Code.
2. Under what circumstances the abolition on the 20th February 1868 of the applicant's appointment of Petition Clerk in the License Tax Office Madras, resulted in a break of 10 days in the continuity of his service, while the Collector in his reply to this office Objection Memo ~~204~~ ²⁸⁸ of the 19th April 1880 states that the applicant "had retained a lien on his permanent appointment during the period of his employment on temporary duties" duties". The Treasury officers letter No 229 of the 3^d May 1880 cited in support of this latter statement should also be forwarded.

Why is the applicant shown to have enjoyed leave without pay for a period of only 5 months and 19 days from the 17th February 1860, while in the Service Book he is shown to have taken such leave for a period of 6 months from the said date.

The Government order of the 19th September 1879, directing the abolition of the Cantonment Magistrate's Court from the 1st of November 1879, was received by the Cantonment Magistrate only on the 2^d October last, & that the notice required by Rule 2, Section 59 of the Civil Pension Code was immediately given to the applicant; but Rule 2 under Section 84 of the said Code referred to does not require any such explanation on the point.

2 - According to the applicant's own statement he had retained a lien on the permanent appointment of B. Vernaculars Clerk in the Collectors office, Madras, to which he reverted on the 1st March 1868 after his discharge from the temporary appointment of Petition Clerk in the License Tax office, Madras, which he held till the end of February 1868. But the Deputy Collector of Madras having stated in his letter No. 1203 dated the 29th October 1879 to the late Cantonment Magistrate of this station that the applicant's name "is entered in the pay abstracts from 1st September 1867 to 20th February 1868 on 50 Rs. pay per mensem, as Petition Clerk in the License Tax office, but it disappears again without any reason reason being recorded," that appointment was entered accordingly. As it now appears that there is nothing contrary on record, I believe the applicant's statement & request that the entry in the application be altered accordingly. An affidavit taken from the applicant in support of this statement & the Treasury officer's letter No 229 of the 3^d May last are herewith forwarded.

3. The applicant was granted leave without pay for 6 months on private affairs, during which period he went to Madras and obtained the post of Vernacular clerk in the sub Collector's office, Chingleput, on the 6th August 1860 i.e. 11 days prior to the expiration of the leave. Hence the difference.
