FROM

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF FORT ST. GEORGE,

TO

THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
DEPARTMENT OF FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

SIR,

At the close of 1878 the Controller of Military Accounts brought to the notice of Government the insubordinate conduct of two clerks, named P. S. X. Dorasami Mudaliar and P. Kistnasami Aiyer, in the office of the Examiner of Commissariat Accounts at Madras.

These men had not only been admittedly instrumental in promoting an organized opposition to certain transfers between the office of the Controller and Examiner, but were, with good reason, believed to have had a hand in the preparation and transmission of an anonymous letter received by the Controller threatening his life if the transfer were carried into effect.

2. On full consideration of the circumstances this Government directed the dismissal of these clerks, who eventually presented memorials to the Secretary of State, who declined to interfere on their behalf.

3. They have now applied to be granted pensions in consideration of their long and approved service in superior grades, which, as verified by the Controller of Military Accounts, amounts in the case of P. S. X. Dorasami Mudaliar to twenty-two years, eight months, and seventeen days, of which nineteen years, one month, and twenty-three days are returned as qualifying, and in the case of P. Kistnasami Aiyer to twenty-two years, seven months, and twenty-four days, of which eighteen years and ten days are qualifying.

4. Their service, had they been invalided, would have entitled them to a pension of Rs. 37-3-2 and Rs. 23-15-10 per mensem, respectively, and as the character and conduct of each of them are stated to have been > "Considered very good up to the time of their being charged with the offence for which they were dismissed," the Right Honorable the Governor in Council would recommend their being allowed a compassionate allowance of Rs. 20 and Rs. 15 per mensem, respectively, from the date of this letter.

5. Copy of the Proceedings of this Government relating to the dismissal of P. S. X. Dorasami Mudaliar and Kistnasami Aiyer is forwarded herewith for the information of the Government of India.

To Government of India with copy of G.Os., 9th December 1878, No. 6735, and 18th Aug. 1879, No. 4497 (Military Department), and of the Controller's Report, dated 5th October 1880. & 23rd October 1880

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

FORT ST. GEORGE,
22nd December 1880.

Secretary to Government.

To

THE MOST NOBLE THE DUKE OF
BUCKINGHAM AND CHANDOS, G.C.S.I.,
Governor in Council, Fort St. George.

The humble Petition of P. S. X. DORASAMI MUDALY, late Clerk in the Office of Examiner of Commissariat Accounts, Madras.

HUMBLY SHOWETH,—That your petitioner was dismissed by Order of Government, No. 6735, dated 9th December 1878, on the representation made by the Controller of Military Accounts in No. 289, dated 27th November 1878, B, to the effect that your petitioner was the ringleader in the getting up of a petition conjointly with the clerks of the Examiner's establishment against the appointment of Mr. Bacon in the room of Mr. Clark, who succeeded to the post in the Controller's Office rendered vacant by the death of Mr. Hendricks.

2. That your petitioner deems it hardly necessary to trouble Government with a recapitulation of his case, as it has, no doubt, already been fully considered by the Noble Government before it was pleased to sanction your petitioner's dismissal; but your petitioner would humbly beg to be pardoned the liberty he now takes to solicit at the hands of Government by way of compensation for his past good services extending over a period of twenty-three years, as already stated, which, under the rules of the service, entitle him to a pension of one-third of his pay, or, if he had served two years longer, to a pension of a moiety of the same. These he has forfeited through an unfortunate circumstance, but not through any act of his which involved moral disgrace.

3. That your petitioner entered Government service on the 6th March 1856 on a salary of Rs. 17-8-0. That by an earnest endeavour honestly and faithfully to discharge his duties he gradually, in the course of twenty-three years, attained to the position of Manager of the Clothing Section on a salary of Rs. 130. That throughout this lengthened period of service your humble petitioner had always the satisfaction of having met with the approval of his superiors and not being alone in his service relation to Government, as testified to in the testimonials, &c., hereto attached. Relying on the clemency of Government your petitioner most piteously craves that his present prayer may be graciously acceded to.

4. That your petitioner respectfully brings to the notice of Government that his summary dismissal from the service was a stroke he was not prepared for. If he felt that it was a punishment awarded for a crime of which he was guilty, his remorse of conscience would have been its own accuser, but believing, as your petitioner does, that he was the victim of an unfortunate circumstance into which he had dropped very unwittingly, his punishment is greater than he can bear, and the consequence is that although nearly two years have elapsed, his mental depression and bodily infirmity still unfit him for active work. That your petitioner having a wife by a second marriage and ten children by the first, all depending on him for support, tend to aggravate his distressed condition. Under such circumstances of his case, your petitioner humbly begs that he may be granted a compassionate allowance for the long period he had served Government, and particularly as his dismissal was not the result of "fraud and dishonesty, continued and wilful negligence, offences involving moral disgrace and proved incompetency," which, under the rules, appear to be the only grounds for which a person appointed to a permanent situation can be dismissed.

5. That your petitioner does not now question the right of his dismissal, as he is impressed with the belief that, looking at the facts as represented by the Controller of Military Accounts and the light under which it was so represented, Government was pleased to take the action it did in the matter; but your petitioner is the unhappy sufferer, and in alleviation of such suffering he humbly craves at the hands of Government the boon of a compassionate allowance to enable him with his family to eke out an existence for his few remaining years.

6. That your petitioner may be pardoned for citing precedents in which Government was pleased to grant compassionate allowances to an employé in the same office to which he belonged, Mr. J. H. Court, and one Coorasalu Naidu of the Pay Examiner's Department, and he therefore earnestly hopes that the same feeling of liberality and benevolence will be bestowed on the humble servant of a Noble Government.

For which act of mercy your petitioner, as in duty bound, shall ever pray.

MYLAPUR,
25th June 1880.

P. S. X. DORASAMI.

B.

Forwarded, the petition having apparently been submitted through this office through misapprehension.

2. A report will, however, be submitted if required.

OOTACAMUND,

(Signed) J. MICHAEL, Colonel,
Secy. to Govt., Mily. Dept.

From Colonel J. W. RIDEOUT, Controller of Military Accounts, to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated Ootacamund, 15th July 1880, F.

Petition from P. S. Dorasami Mudaly, late a Clerk in the Office of Examiner of Commissariat Accounts, Madras, for a compassionate allowance.

In returning the accompanying petition referred under docket, No. 4388, of 13th July 1880, I have the honor to solicit the support of Government in obtaining the sanction of the Secretary of State for India to the grant of a small eleemosynary allowance to the petitioner P. S. Dorasami Mudaly, lately employed in the Clothing Examiner's Office.

Procs. of Govt., No. 632, of 28th Jan. 1880.
Do. No. 6735, of 9th Dec. 1878.

2. The circumstances which led to Dorasami Mudaliar's dismissal have been already reported on by this office. He erred greatly and received well-merited punishment. But as I have satisfied myself that that punishment, although deserved, has reduced the petitioner to the most abject poverty, I would strongly recommend the grant to him of a small compassionate allowance in recognition of his twenty-two years' good service. Had the petitioner retired on an invalid pension he would have received about 36 rupees per mensem.

3. The ends of justice and of discipline having been attained by the summary dismissal of Dorasami Mudaliar, who, however good his former services may have been, forfeited his right to continue in the position he then held by an act of insubordination, Government may, I trust, be induced to attribute such misconduct rather to a grievous error of judgment than to wilfulness, and, in consideration of services already rendered, to deem him deserving of their charity.

Pension Department, Proceedings of Government, No. 75, of 25th February 1878.

4. The case to which the petitioner refers in his last paragraph is recorded in Orders of Government as per margin.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

Adverting to the cases of P. S. X. Dorasami Mudaliar and P. Kistnasami Aiyer, whose dismissal was sanctioned in G.O., 9th December 1878, No. 6735, Military Department), and to the Controller of Military Accounts' letter to the Secretary to Government, Military Department, dated 15th April last, F, regarding the former, the undersigned is directed to inquire whether Colonel Rideout considers the cases of the two men parallel, and would recommend some indulgence being shown to the latter also.

2. It is requested that it may be reported what has become of P. Kistnasami Aiyer, and that an application similar to that recently* submitted in behalf of P. S. X. Dorasami Mudaliar may now be also sent in for him.

* Dated 5th instant.

Under Secy. to Govt.

To the Controller of Military Accounts.

From Colonel J. W. RIDEOUT, Controller of Military Accounts, to the Under Secretary to Government, Pension Department, dated Fort St. George, 28th October 1880, A.

In reply to your memorandum as per margin, I have the honor to state that I would equally commend P. Kistnasami Aiyer's case for the merciful consideration of Government.

No. 78 of 15th October 1880, making certain inquiries respecting P. Kistnasami Aiyer, late a Clerk in the Commissariat Examiner's Office, but since dismissed.

2. The man has, I have ascertained, been earning a salary of Rs. 25 per mensem since the month of July 1879, and has now succeeded in obtaining temporary service on a salary of Rs. 50 per mensem as Librarian under the Madras Literary Society.

3. An application for pension in the prescribed form is herewith submitted, as desired, showing that had the clerk been dispensed with in the ordinary manner he would have been eligible for a pension of Rs. 23-15-10 per mensem.

To

His Grace the DUKE OF BUCKINGHAM AND CHANDOS,
Governor in Council, Fort St. George.

The humble Petition of P. KISTNASAMI AIYER, late Third-class Clerk in the Office of Examiner of Commissariat Clothing and Stud Accounts.

Most Respectfully Showeth,—That after uninterrupted good service for nearly twenty-three years your petitioner was (according to the final entry in his service book) "Dismissed the service under the orders of Government (Proceedings of Government, 9th December 1878, No. 6735) for misconduct in being concerned in clandestinely circulating a draft petition appealing to Government against the Controller of Military Accounts." The entry (which is signed by Lieutenant-Colonel Hunt, Examiner of Commissariat Clothing and Stud Accounts) adds: "There is, however, nothing in the Proceedings of Government prohibiting his re-employment in Government service."

2. Your petitioner does not purpose to dwell upon the circumstances attending his dismissal, but rather to throw himself upon the mercy of Government in order to obtain, if possible, some slight mitigation of a punishment which, in its effect, is greater than he can bear. Notwithstanding that "there is nothing prohibiting his re-employment," he finds the fact of his dismissal operate as an insuperable obstacle thereto. Turn where he may, the stigma of insubordinate conduct clings to him still, effacing not unmeritorious service which stood the test of nearly a quarter of a century. His dismissal has thus not only deprived him of his daily bread, but also of the very means of subsistence. Your petitioner cannot believe that it was the intention of either the Controller or Government to punish him with such extreme severity.

3. Your petitioner repeats that he does not purpose to dwell upon the circumstances attending his dismissal, and he feels it would be worse than useless for him now to reiterate that he was innocent of the offence laid to his account. Yet he ventures, with much respect, to point out that the charges considered to have been sufficiently established against him to warrant his dismissal were, from the very nature of the case, matters of inference from circumstances not capable of formal proof, whatever might have been the strength of the moral conviction to which they led. Petitioner has on more than one occasion freely admitted that he was to some extent a party to the preparation of a petition appealing against the Controller; but he neither inspired that petition nor was he, in any sense of the word, a ring-leader in getting it up. He could not but be aware of the patent fact that it was in contemplation to submit such a petition, as discontent naturally vented itself in discussion. But with the cowardly anonymous letter threatening the life of the Controller your petitioner once more solemnly declares that he had nothing to do. He feels it quite necessary to do this, as there can be no doubt he would have been dealt with more leniently had not the Controller assumed a connection between the projected petition and the anonymous letter. Your petitioner has not understood to this day what was meant by the use of the word "clandestine," as applied to either the preparation or the circulation of the petition, unless it was held that permission ought to have been obtained for its very preparation. It is almost needless to observe that there could never have been any intention to submit the petition to Government otherwise than through the Controller. To have sent it direct would have been not merely wrong but impolitic, as it must have been immediately returned to its authors for submission through the regular channel. It is incredible that even ill-disposed persons should trip in such an obvious matter of routine. In respect to what forms the gravamen of the charge, viz., the "canvassing for signatures" to the petition, your petitioner need say nothing, as he gathers from the departmental order suspending him that the Controller did not suspect him of this.

4. There is, however, just one other point concerning which your petitioner would humbly put in a plea of "extenuating circumstances." The Controller has regarded it as proof positive of your petitioner's complicity as a principal in the preparation of the petition that, immediately after the inquiry held by the Controller, your petitioner endeavoured to secure the destruction of the offending document. Your petitioner admits that this proceeding on his part showed a want of moral courage such as to raise a strong presumption against his straightforwardness, but it will not necessarily be held to imply that he was guilty of deliberate deception from first to last, if only the disturbing influence upon his mind of the undoubted fact of the Controller's extreme displeasure be not merely taken into account but assigned its due weight.

5. Under all the above circumstances, your petitioner would humbly crave at the hands of Government the boon of a one-third pension to save him from misery little short of starvation.

For which act of kindness your petitioner, as in duty bound, shall ever pray.

My dear Michael

I am transferring to you today a petition from one of the unfortunate Clerks whom I felt compelled to dismiss from the Com.^r Examiner Office for insubordination. The man was suspended I believe, and not having received the punishment his

The Most Noble the Duke of Buckingham and Chandos, G. C. S. I., Governor in Council, Fort Saint George.

THE humble Petition of P. S. Dhorasawmy Moodelly, late Clerk in the Office of Examiner of Commissariat Accounts, Madras.

HUMBLY SHEWETH,

That your Petitioner was dismissed by order of Government No. 6735, dated 9th December 1878 on the representation made by the Controller of Military Accounts in No. 289, dated 27th November 1878 B. to the effect that your Petitioner was the ringleader in the getting up of a Petition conjointly with the clerks of the Examiner's Establishment against the appointment of Mr. Bacon in the room of Mr. Clark who succeeded to the post in the Controller's Office rendered vacant by the death of Mr. Hendricks.

2. That your Petitioner deems it hardly necessary to trouble Government with a recapitulation of his case as it has, no doubt, already been fully considered by the noble Government, before it was pleased to Sanction your Petitioner's dismissal, but your Petitioner would humbly beg to be pardoned the liberty he now takes to solicit at the hands of Government by way of compensation for his past good services extending over a period of 23 years as already stated, which, under the rules of the service, entitles him to a pension of one-third of his pay, or if he had served two years longer, to a pension of a moiety of the same. These he has forfeited through an unfortunate circumstance, but not through any act of his, which involved moral disgrace.

3. That your Petitioner entered Government Service ou the 6th March 1856 on a salary of Rupees 17-8. That by an earnest endeavour honestly and faithfully to discharge his duties he gradually in the course of twenty-three years attained to the position of Manager of the Clothing Section on a salary of Rupees 130. That throughout this lengthened period of service your humble Petitioner had always the satisfaction of having met with the approval of his superiors and not being alone in his service relation to Government, as testified to in the testimonials &c., hereto attached. Relying on the clemency of Government your Petitioner most pitiously craves that his present prayer may be graciously acceded to.

4. That your Petitioner respectfully brings to the notice of Government that his summary dismissal from the service was a stroke he was not prepared for. If he felt that it was a punishment awarded for a crime of which he was guilty his remorse of conscience would have been its own accuser, but believing as your Petitioner does, that he was the victim of an unfortunate circumstance into which he had dropped very unwittingly, his punishment is greater than he can bear and the consequence is, that although nearly two years have elapsed his mental depression and bodily infirmity still unfit him for active work. That your Petitioner having a wife by a second marriage and ten children by the first, all depending on him for support, tend to aggravate his distressed condition. Under such circumstances of his case your Petitioner humbly begs that he may be granted a compassionate allowance for the long period he had served Government and particularly as his dismissal was not the result of "fraud and dishonesty, continued and wilful negligence, offences involving moral disgrace and proved incompetency" which, under the rules, appear to be the only grounds for which a person appointed to a permanent situation can be dismissed.

5. That your Petitioner does not now question the right of his dismissal as he is impressed with the belief that looking at the facts as represented by the Controller of Military Accounts and the light under which it was so represented, Government was pleased to take the action it did in the matter, but your Petitioner is the unhappy sufferer and in allevation of such suffering he humbly craves at the hands of Government the boon of a compassionate allowance to enable him with his family to eke out an existence for his few remaining years.

6. That your Petitioner may be pardoned for citing precedents in which Government was pleased to grant compassionate allowances to an employé in the same Office to which he belonged Mr. J. H. Court and one Coorasalu Naidu of the Pay Examiner's Department, and he therfore earnestly hopes that the same feeling of liberality and benevolence will be bestowed on the humble servant of a noble Government.

For which act of mercy your Petitioner, as in duty bound,

MYLAPUR, 25th June 1880.

SHALL EVER PRAY.

No. 4544.

Office of Examiner of Clothing Accounts,
Fort St. George, 21st March 1876.

To

THE CONTROLLER OF MILITARY ACCOUNTS,
FORT ST. GEORGE.

Sir,

* Dated 16th February 1876, from P. S. Dhorasawmy Moodelliar, 2nd Class Clerk.

I have the honor to forward the accompanying * Petition for favorable consideration.

2. When the Audit of the Clothing Agent's Accounts was transferred to this Office in 1859, Dhorasawmy and two Clerks were put in charge of it; from that date to the present time, the work has gradually increased, and now with six Clerks at work upon the Accounts, it has been found impracticable to keep the work under without requiring of the Clerks extra attendance during two or three months in the year, as will be seen from the accompanying Memo.

(a.) No. 4406 dated 19th February 1867.
" 3467 " 28th November 1867.
" 710 " 16th June 1870
" 2556 " 21st December 1870.

(b.) No. 1186 dated 15th July 1868.

3. The nature of the work performed by the Clothing Auditors, and the rapid increase in its quantity has been often dwelt upon in letters from this Office as per margin, (a) and in another (b) letter, a comparison is drawn between the pay drawn by the Clothing Section in this and the Bengal and Bombay Presidencies, shewing that this Presidency is at a disadvantage; promotion is also slow, especially in the upper grades, and until December last Dhorasawmy has received no advance upon his salary of 100 Rupees per mensem for nine years, during which time the audit of which he is in charge has gradually increased in responsibility, until it is second only to that of the Presidency Range, the Auditor in charge of which receives a salary of Rupees 200 per mensem.

4. The Office is at present drawing considerably less than the mean of the aggregated of salaries sanctioned in Proceedings of Government No. 1586 of the 20th May 1874.

5. In conclusion I may say that I shall be very glad indeed if Dhorasawmy's request can be granted, as he is highly deserving of consideration from the satisfactory way he has long conducted heavy and responsible work, and the great attention and intelligence he has always brought to bear on it.

I have, &c.,

Sir,

* 16th February 1876.
† No. 4544 of 21st March 1876.

After giving full and due consideration to the application * of P. S. Dhorasawmy, a Clerk in the Department under your charge, and with every desire to further his interests, not only from the strong terms of commendation in which you speak of him, † but also from my personal recollection of the zeal and efficiency with which he performed the onerous duties of the appointment assigned him in the Office while I held charge, I have the honor to express my regret, that I am unable to recognize grounds for special representation to Government. I do not consider the case to be of so exceptional a character as to warrant my troubling Government, nor am I aware of any order contemplating so extreme a measure, that quoted in the accompanying application not appearing to me to bear on the case in point.

P. G. No. 2214 of 16th November 1875.

2. I should hope, that an early opportunity of Departmental promotion may offer, when you will have the opportunity of affording that recognition of Clerk Dhorasawmy's merits and past services, which I am of opinion he has a right to look for from the Head of his Office, and which is the more suitable and legitimate mode of rewarding zeal and diligence in the performance of the duties appertaining to an ordinary post in an Office.

Sir,

Petition from P. S. Dhoraswamy Moodelly late a Clerk in the Office of Nammer of Commissariat Acct. Madras for a Compassionate Allowance

In returning the accompanying petition referred under docket No. 4388 of 13 July 1880, I have the honor to solicit the support of Government in obtaining the sanction of the Secretary of State for India to the grant of a small eleemosynary allowance to the petitioner P. S. Dhoraswamy Moodelly: lately employed in the Clothing Nammers Office.

P.G.
No. 632 of 28 Jany 1880
" 6785 of 9 Decr 1873

2. The circumstances which led to Dhoraswamy Moodelliar's dismissal have been already reported on by this Office. He erred greatly and received well merited punishment. But as I have satisfied myself that that punishment, although deserved, has reduced the Petitioner to the most abject poverty, I would strongly recommend the grant to him of a small Compassionate allowance in recognition of his 22 years good service. Had the Petitioner retired on an invalid pension he would have received about 36 Rupees per mensem.

3. The ends of justice and of discipline having been attained by the summary dismissal of Dhoraswamy Moodelliar, who however good his former services may have been, forfeited his right to continue in the position he then held by an act of insubordination, Government may, I trust, be induced to attribute such misconduct rather to a grievous error of judgment than to wilfulness, and, in consideration of services already rendered, to deem him deserving of their Charity.

4. The case to which the Petitioner refers in his last para is recorded in Orders of Government as per margin
