From

Deputy, Chittoor District

To

The Asst Collector,

With reference to the Asst Collector's memorandum no. dated July in which it is mentioned that when Raja Rao, who is now Clerk in the Sub Collector's office, was formerly Dmishi in my office, he played some tricks in regard to the dismissal of the Monigar of Bondi village in the Wallaja Taluk, and accepted some money as a bribe; that he submitted to me a few false statements with a view to effect his object, and that in the end he did not give effect to my orders; I have regularly examined Raja Rao in person and found that there was satisfactory evidence against him. I am of opinion that the said Rajah Row is unfit for Government Service and it is decided that he should be dismissed.

But, as the said Rajah Row is at present employed as Clerk in the Dy Sub Collector's Office, it is requested that orders might be issued by the Dy Sub Collector to carry the above order into effect. It is further requested that my order to the said Rajah Row herewith sent may be perused by the Dy Sub Collector and then sent to Rajah Row.
