						S. Comarasawmy Moodly	of being satisfied in the way he discharged his duties. He understands the perfect System of Keeping accounts connected with the head works and similar work of this nature and during the time he was under my orders I found him to be a hard working intelligent and trustworthy assistant. He is really deserving of a higher appointment, and had it not for his being an unpassed Candidate & unwilling to join the Range Office owing to the travelling life he would have been by this time in the rank of an accountant. I am extremely sorry to part with his services caused an account of my transfer to the College work and I will be happy to have him back if permitted by the District Engineer. He is the only one I came across in whose confidence may be placed as he is a man serving in the department for the last nearly 20 Years.
