* If the Applicant has received any gratuity or pension, here state the amount of gratuity or pension granted, and the authority under which sanctioned, and whether on re-employment the gratuity has or has not been refunded and the pension ceased to be drawn.

† If the applicant is recommended for a pension or gratuity as compensation for abolition of Office, state here for what reasons it was found impossible to provide other suitable employment for the applicant and whether by the abolition of the appointment, a real saving to Government in respect to the cost of the abolished appointment has been produced. Vide Rules 1 and 6, Section 59 of the Civil Pension Code.

Certificate and Report of Examiner, Public Works Accounts.

No. 359 A./B.

Certified that qualifying service in superior grades has been duly proved for 11 (eleven) years, 6 (six) months and 2 (two) days and that a compensation gratuity not exceeding Rs 220 (two hundred and twenty) equal to 11 (eleven) months' emoluments viz., Rs 20 (twenty) per mensem is admissible under Section 68(a) of the Civil Pension Code

* para 21 rules promulgated with Government of India Financial Department Notification No 1915 dated 13th April 1864

With reference to the rules* which were in force at the time (December 1867) when the applicant overstayed his Privilege Leave by (25) twenty-five days, it would appear that he has not forfeited his previous services; as his absence did not exceed one month. These rules appear to have remained in force until June 1871 when they were revised by Govt of India Financial Department Notification No 1067 dated 9th June 1871. Under the circumstances should Government be pleased to treat the applicant's services prior to 26th November 1867 as qualifying, the applicant will have rendered a qualifying service of 18 (eighteen) years, 7 (seven) months, and (23) twenty-three days and that a compensation pension not exceeding Rs (6. 10. 8) six, annas ten and pies eight per mensem equal to one third of his average emoluments viz Rs 20 (twenty) per mensem will then be admissible under Section 68(b) of the Civil Pension Code.
