No. 55

To

S. T. Mc Carthy Esqr.

Acting District Judge of Cuddapah

Honored Sir,

I beg to submit herewith for your favorable consideration the application of my peon Heroje for gratuity. He is very much bent down by age being in my opinion between 65 and 70 years although his age is entered as 57 in the service Register in 1877. He admits that he is older than his relative Vencojerow, Pensioned Head Gumasta and now a Vakil of my Court, by 5 years and the latter tells me he is 65 years. In addition to the infirmity of age he has latterly become sick and is frequently obliged to stop away. He is hardly able to stand before me for even an hour and the result is that the whole work is thrown upon the other peon. Under these circumstances I think he is unfit for further service and that he cannot be retained without much inconvenience to the Court work. He also expressed to me his desire to retire and has made the present application which states that he was entertained as a Court peon in 1854 having previously served 20 years as a batta peon. His service book contains no entry showing the date of his entertainment and I have in vain searched the records of my Court for information. The papers of 1854 have been too much eaten up by white ants to admit of any search and I must under these circumstances submit that the information must be gathered from the Proceedings of your Court. There is however a pay abstract signed by a late Munsiff of this Court in October 1857, in which the name of this peon is entered as a peon on the establishment at 3 1/2 Rupees a month and this shows that he must have been entertained before October 1857. Even calculating from October 1857, he has served more than 21 years, which entitles him to the maximum gratuity allowed under the pension and gratuity rules (vide section 65 of the Civil Pension Code). The testimonials which he holds show that he possessed a good character all through his service and there is nothing to be said against him. Either according to his statement that he was entertained in 1854 or according to the infor-mation gathered in this Court as submitted above he is entitled to a gratuity equivolent to 6 months pay viz 30 Rupees, but he cannot, I think, get 60 Rupees which is a years pay.

I beg to request under these circumstances that you will be pleased to represent his case to Government and get the sanction for the gratuity which in my humble opinion, he richly deserves.

I have, at his own request, allowed him to remain in service until the gratuity is sanctioned, and I shall nominate his successor after the proceedings are received.

I beg to remain.
Honored Sir,

I beg to state that the leaves were not entered in it from time to time and that I have been obliged to gather the information on a reference to the diary from 1854 to 1878. As I had to examine the diary of nearly 24 years it took me so long to submit the book.
