I. From entries of applicants services in the office Service Register, Pay Bills &c

There is nothing on the record to show the cause of degradation: but the applicant was about 20 days subsequently promoted to the post of Criminal Javabnivis.

II. The records show that he has held the post of 5th Writer up to 5th January 1859 - during which he has held several acting appointments. On the 26th January 1872, he was made to act for Criminal Javabnivis: he held it up to 18th October 1872; on the 19th he was promoted to act for Criminal Record Keeper in which he was confirmed on 2nd July 1873. He was confirmed as Criminal Javabnivis on the 1st December 1872, which was omitted to be entered in his Service Register.

III. In January 1870, he was fined one day's pay for late attendance and in August 1872 he was fined 4 annas for carelessness in preparing foot notes to deposition.

The Court was adjourned 2 months on account of the annual recess — soon after the introduction of the new scale. The applicant presented his application on the 7 July 1879
