THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF INDIA,
FINANCE AND COMMERCE DEPARTMENT.

SIR,

I am directed to submit the accompanying case of Apparaz Rama Rao for the favorable consideration of the Governor-General in Council.

2. Apparaz Rama Rao entered the Government service on the 22nd September 1847 as a writer in the Principal Sadr Amin's Court at Nellore, and served in it in superior grades until its abolition, when, on the 9th December 1859, after a qualifying service of thirteen years, one month, and nine days, he was thrown out of employment and granted a compensation gratuity of Rs. 84, equal to four months' pay. On the 1st September 1862 he was re-employed in the public service as a Gumastah on 10 rupees in the Munsif's Court at Nellore and remained on the same pay until invalided on the 11th March 1879.

Letter to the Government of India, dated 9th June 1874, No. 317.
Letter from the Government of India, dated 29th July 1874, No. 4599.
Letter to the Government of India, dated 19th August 1874, No. 480.
Letter from the Government of India, dated 15th October 1874, No. 6194.

3. In the correspondence noted in the margin the Government of India decided that Gumastahs in the Munsifs' Courts in this Presidency whose pay does not exceed Rs. 10 must be considered inferior servants, and thus the whole of the later service of Apparaz Rama Rao, amounting to sixteen years, three months, and eleven days, was inferior.

4. Apparaz Rama Rao did not on re-employment refund the gratuity received for his earlier service, so that under Rule 9 at the end of Chapter XX, Civil Pension Code, he is not entitled to any gratuity for his later service, as the gratuity (Rs. 50) admissible for it plus the gratuity (Rs. 84) received for the earlier service exceeds the gratuity which would have been admissible for his combined service had the gratuity for the earlier service been refunded.

5. The combined service of Apparaz Rama Rao amounts to twenty-nine years, four months, and twenty days, so that had he been able to serve some seven months and ten days longer he could have been granted a gratuity for his second service as that gratuity, Rs. 50, added to the gratuity already received, Rs. 84, would not have exceeded the present value (Rs. 469-2-4) of the pension that would have been admissible had the gratuity granted prior to re-employment been refunded.

6. Looking to the nature of the applicant's long service and to the fact that he was kept out of employment for more than two years and a half for no fault of his own, the Governor in Council would recommend the case of Apparaz Rama Rao being specially dealt with, so that he may be allowed the gratuity of Rs. 50 which would have been admissible to him after a further service of seven months and ten days.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

THIS is to certify that I have carefully examined A. Rama Rau son of A. Ramayah 6th Gumastah of the Kavily Munsiff's Court His age is by his own statement 53 years and by appearance about 60 years. I consider A. Rama Rau to be completely and permanently incapacitated for further service of any kind in the Department to which he belongs, in consequence of old age & General Debility. A. Rama Rau is undoubtedly in my opinion considerably older than he states, Degeneration of the muscular tissue from old age has set in, his circulation is slow & feeble & it would be impossible for him to do a fair amount of work daily.

His incapacity does not appear to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits. He has not been under general Medical treatment. ~~Treated with~~

Reply

The service book is closed & the reason of termination of each appointment is attested by the signature of the Judge.

The medical certificate by the Zillah Surgeon with his detailed reasons for invaliding him & a similar one from a 2d Medical officer the Assistant Surgeon are hereunto appended.

The book in which the written orders of Government & the High Court received in 1861 are pasted up is mislaid & not forthcoming & from certain other records of this Court it clearly appears that the Government in their order No 14 dated 15th January 1861 sanctioned gratuity to A. Ramarow for his earlier services.

From information received from the District Munsiff of Havaly as well as from the records of this Court it appears that the above individual was absent on leave on private affairs on forfeiture of full pay from 27th July 1874 to 31st October 1875.

Additional remark.

Ramarow has been a good deal absent from duty within the last 3 years. He is evidently broken down & unable to work long at a time. Consequently he is continually requiring rest. This makes him unfit for continuous duty.

Sir,

I am directed to submit the accompanying case of Apparaz Rama Rao for the favorable consideration of the Governor General in Council.

2 Apparaz Rama Rao entered the Government Service on the 22d September 1847 as a writer in the Principal Sadr Ameen's Court at Nellore, and served in it in superior grades until its abolition when on the 9th December 1859 after a qualifying service of 12 years 1 month & 9 days, he was thrown out of employment and granted a compensation compensation gratuity of Rs. 84 equal to four months pay. On the 1st September 1862 he was re-employed in the public Service as a Gumastah on 10 Rupees in the Munsiff's Court at Nellore and remained on the same pay until invalided on the 11th March 1879.

3. In the correspondence noted in the margin the Government of India decided that Gumastahs in the Munsiffs' Courts in this Presidency whose pay does not exceed Rupees 10 must be considered inferior servants and thus the whole of the later Service of Apparaz Rama Rao, amounting to 16 years 3 months & 11 days was inferior.

4. Apparaz Rama Rao did not on re-employment refund the gratuity received for his earlier service so that under rule 9 at the end of Chapter XX Civil Pension Code, he is not entitled to any gratuity for his later Service as the gratuity Rs. 50; admissible for it plus the gratuity Rs. 84 received for the earlier Service exceeds the gratuity which would have been admissible for his combined service had the gratuity for the earlier Service been refunded.

5. The combined Service of Apparaz Rama Row amounts to 29 years 4 months & 20 days, so that had he been able able to serve some seven months and 10 days longer, he could have been granted a gratuity for his second service as that gratuity Rs. 50, added to the gratuity already received Rs. 84 would not have exceeded the present value (Rs. $\overset{469-2-4}{433-4-8}$) of the pension that would have been admissible had the gratuity granted prior to re-employment been refunded.

6. Looking to the nature of the applicant's long service and to the fact that he was kept out of employment for more than two years and a half for no fault of his own the Governor in Council would recommend the case of Apparaz Rama Rao being specially dealt with so that he may be allowed the gratuity of Rs. 50 which would have been admissible to him after a further service of seven months and ten days.
