From T. Venkatasubramanian (Pentahill)
Late 2^d Class Deputy Collector of the Harpandahilly Division Bellary
To The Chief Secretary to Government
Fort St. George

Respected Sir,
I beg to represent that I submitted my Series Book (forwarded to me by the Civil Judge of Masulipatam) with my Pension application to the Collector of Bellary, who sent it to the Accountant General.
On my requesting the Accountant Genl.
to return it to me, he informed me in his letter of 20th instant that it was submitted to Govt. with my Pension application in December last (vide Govt. letter to Govt. 17 Dec 1879 No 573).

Dear Sir
I have been pleased to grant you a monthly Pension of Rs 250, I am grateful for it.
I respectfully beg that you will be pleased to order the return to me the Service Book if it is no longer required.

I have the honor to be Yours most obedient servant
