To The Under Secretary to Government in the Pension Department
Fort

Respected Sir,

With due deference and submission I beg leave to inform your honors & I was late employed as a Clerk in the Accountant General's Office Fort Saint George and retired from Service in 1877 on  $\frac{1}{3}$  pension in consequence of my ill health at the time. As however I now find myself much improved in health so much to say that I have regained my former health & strength & consequently capable of serving again under Government in any capacity similar to my former one. My pecuniary circumstances also oblige me to take this step as the slender
