The Under Secretary to Govt Pension Dept Madras.
 Sir

In acknowledging receipt of the Govt Order dated 25 March 1880 No 259 informing me that His Grace the Governor in Council has been pleased to grant me a pension of Rs 10-7-11 per mensem with a bonus of Rs 500. I very respectfully beg to say that I will be pleased to lay before Govt the facts that I have taken advantage of the concession of the Govt of India for those under 10 years service of the option of Capitalizing their pension annuity. I had applied for the Capitalization of my pension. On the 23rd Instant I received from the Executive Engineer, Cambay Division a requisition from the Engineer of Public Works to forward a medical certificate of my having the prospect of an average duration of life. This I obtained from the Civil Surgeon here on the 25th Instant and immediately forwarded it in under a Register Cover to the Executive Engineer, Cambay Division. Under the very painful circumstance this late Reduction has thrown me with a large family to support I very earnestly beg that the Capitalization of the annuity may be at once sanctioned. In case there has been any delay I very respectfully beg to state that the fault is not on my side. I therefore humbly trust that in addition to the life long blow that I and my family have sustained by the late Reduction we may not be thrown into greater difficulties by the denial of the Capitalization of the annuity. I am, Sir, awaiting an early order hereon.

Very Remains
