During the time I was acting District Engineer I always found C. Mummajee Row very hard working willing and attentive.

Nellore 4th July 1863 (Sigd.) A. S. Moberly Captain Ag. District Engineer Nellore.

From 1st July 1863 to 14th July 1864 without any pay by the abolition of the District Engineer's Office Nellore.

Proceedings of the Madras Government Public Works Dept 9th Sept/64 No. 175. Read the following letter from Captain J. Mullins R.E. Consulting Engineer Irrigation and Canal Company to Colonel C. A. Orr R.E. Secretary to Government Department Public Works dated Madras 2nd September 1864. No. 90.

Sir, On the 15th July 1864 I appointed C. Mummajee Row late Head accountant District Engineer's Office Nellore as Record Keeper in this Office and as the Civil Paymaster states that his reentertainment without passing the uncovenanted Civil Service Examination requires the special sanction of Government, I have the honor to recommend that he be exempted from that Examination.

I enclose the extract (with four original testimonials attached) from the Office Register obtained from the Superintending Engineer 2nd Divn from which it will be seen that up to the abolition of the Office of District Engineer Nellore this man had served with credit for 17¼ years.

No. 176. Order thereon 9th September 1864 No. 2614

Under the Circumstances stated the Govr. in Council resolves to exempt C. Mummajee Row from the operation of the uncovenanted Service Examination Rules.

Mummajee Row

I have received your request for an increase of pay. You have not been one year yet in the appointment and I believe Government very rarely grant an increase before two years have passed. I have been always satisfied by the way in which you have performed your duties while under me. I will mention your case to the Consulting Engineer, and to Major Hand Rn.

3rd February 1870 (Sigd.) C. M. Moberly Captain Examiner Accounts.

Mummajee Row has been [illegible] under me as accountant for the audit of the accounts of the Irrigation and Canal Company for the last 10 months. I have had every reason to be satisfied with him. He is attentive to his duties, and very intelligent and hard working.

I have acted for Captain Moberly up to date and can fully endorse all that Officer says.

29th June 1871 (Sigd.) J. G. Hand Rn.

During the period of six months that I have acted as Examiner of the Madras I. & C. Co.'s accounts I have had every reason to be satisfied with the conduct of Mummajee Row my accountant. He is very hard working and intelligent.

11/1/72 (Sigd.) G. R. Walker. Lieut. R.E.

I certify ~~to~~ the correctness of the copies of certificates marked A to above; and I have also much pleasure in certifying to the uniform good conduct of Man:=najee Row Garu during the fifteen months he has served under my orders. He has been stationed at Kurnool; and I have twice inspected his work during my tenure of office; and have been abundantly satisfied with his care, intelligence and industry. His attention to letters from this office has been all that could be wished.

Civil Engr Dept 2nd Division }	23d March 1846	2nd Writer	35	1	3	12	The Conduct of this Office Servant has always met with the warm approval of the Officers under whom he has served & he has been distinguished for taking much interest in his work & for performing it carefully & thoroughly. About the middle of 1859, it was however suspected that the old native system of receiving presents had been introduced into the Dept. An investigation was held by the Assistant Magistrate and that Officer gave his opinions that the Charges brought against Moonajerone were proved & he was removed from his appointment & transferred under the Chief Engr's Orders / Ext. Pro. of the Chief Engineer No 7742 d/29th Novr 1859/ to the Central Office of Public Works – In every other respect his conduct has been unexceptionable – 26th December 1859. (Sd) I.
