On the ground that the interval between the 1st April 1873 and 31st December 1874, during which the applicant was partly out of employ and partly on Temporary Establishment owing to the abolition of his permanent appointment of Vernacular clerk on Rs 20 under G. O. No 360 of 25th March 1873, does not constitute a break entailing the forfeiture of his past service - Vide Section 55 (d) Civil Pension Code.

2. Yes; the applicant was detached on the several Temporary appointments on the understanding of reversion to his permanent appointment - Vide copies of extracts from the District Gazette of 25 January 1868 and 17th March 1873. The reason why he was out of employ for 7 days after after 31st March 1873 (not 1874 as stated in the Accountant General's Memo) being the abolition of his post under the G.O. quoted above to which allusion has been already made in the Column of "Remarks" in the History of Service.

3. The pension application and the Service-Register are herewith returned with the omissions pointed out duly supplied.

4. The entries of the various kinds of leave enjoyed by the applicant have already been noted in the Service-Register.

CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT GENERAL.

SIGNATURE.

CERTIFIED that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in ^{superior} grades has been duly proved for 16 years 3 months and 3 days; and that a ^{pension} ^{gratuity} not exceeding Rs. 11, 3-2 per annum, is admissible under Section 11-15 (b) of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified. It will be seen from the history of service that on 13th January 1880 the applicant was detached on Temporary duty as Clerk in the Assistant Collector's Office Ching Chap in Pay of Rs. 38 per month, which appointment held up to 31st March 1880, when under the terms of G.O. No. 360 dated the 25th March, his permanent appointment as Permanent Clerk in Rs. 20 per annum in the Collector's Office, was abolished. As the applicant is reported to have returned here on his substantive appointment during the period of his employment in the Temporary Establishment viz. from 13th January 1880 to 31st March 1880, he may be allowed to count for Pension the service rendered in that establishment under the provisions of Section 28 of the Civil Pension Code, and the calculation in which this report is based was made accordingly.

It will further be seen from the entry opposite to No. 11 on the 1st page of the application that the Collector proposes the grant of a Pension of Rs. 11-3-9 in lieu of Rs. 11-3-2 per annum, to which latter only, he would stand entitled under a correct calculation. The difference is due, it is presumed, to his last promotion being reckoned as dating from the 15th instead of from the 25th Jan 1877, the latter date being that given in the Bill on record in this office.

In accordance with rule 3.4 under Section 87, the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 22 of the Civil Pension Code.
