THE undersigned has the honor to request that the District Judge, North Arcot, will be good enough to cause the services of C. V. Ranganada Sastri Esq. (Judge of the Court of Small Causes Madras) from 1st July 1864 to 28th May 1866, as Head English Writer in the Establishment of the Subordinate Court Chittoor on Pay of Rs. 700 per mensem to be verified from the records of his office and the result reported to this office at an early date together with information on the following points:-

- Whether the appointment held by Mr. Ranganada Sastri Esq. was permanent and the services rendered therein qualified for Pension.
- Whether there were any breaks in the continuity of his service, and whether he enjoyed leave of absence of any description, if so, the nature of such breaks, or leave of absence should be given.
- How, and when his connection with the Subordinate Court Chittoor ceased.

It appears from the records of the late subordinate court, Chittoor, that the applicant was Head English writer in the said court on Rs 70 per mensem from 1st July 1844 to 31st May 1846.

(a) He acted on full pay Rs 70 from 1st July 1844 to 6th December 1844 and was subsequently confirmed in that appointment. His service therefore qualifies for Pension.

(b) There was no break in his service during the said period and the applicant enjoyed no leave of absence.

(c) His service in the above court ceased on the 1st June 1846 when he was made interpreter in the late Supreme Court, Madras.

THE undersigned has the honor to state that it has been ascertained from the District Judge North Arcot that Mr. Manganaida Sastri drew Pay as Head English Writer in the Establishment of the Subordinate Court Chittoor at M^{rs} 70 a per Mensem up to 31st May 1846, and that his connection with that Court ceased on the 1st June 1846 only while in the M^{rs} under acknowledgment it was reported to this office that he commenced to draw Pay as an Interpreter in the late Supreme Court Madras from 29th May 1846. It is presumed therefore that Mr. Manganaida Sastri may have drawn Pay for his services from 29th to 31st May 1846 in both the capacities above named. The Registrar is therefore requested to scrutinize the verification from his own office records and to report the result to this office in view to any excess of Pay which may have been drawn for the above-mentioned period, being recovered

1. The Registrar of the High Court Original Side has the honor to state that the services of Mr.
Manganaida Sastri as English Writer of the Court of Sessions (Madras) are detailed in the original and have been verified by the records in this office.
2. The appointment held by Mr. Manganaida Sastri was a permanent one and the services rendered by him are entitled for pension.
3. So far as can be ascertained there are no breaks in the continuity of his service and it does not appear that he had any leave of absence.
4. Mr. Manganaida Sastri's connection with the Supreme Court ceased on his appointment to a Judgeship in the Madras Court of Sessions
