GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PENSION DEPARTMENT.

10th April 1880, No. 310.

Pension.

Read again—

Proceedings of Government, Pension Department, dated 29th September 1879, No. 637, and 24th January 1880, No. 65.

Read also the following papers:—

To the Secretary to the Government of India, Financial Department, dated 26th January 1880, No. 67.

From S. JACOB, Esq., Officiating Under Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Finance and Commerce, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort William, 18th March 1880, No. 1298.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 67, dated 26th January, forwarding copy of an order recorded by the Government of Madras respecting the pensionable part of a Surveyor's pay.

2. I am directed to observe that, as there certainly was room for doubt, the Accountant-General was right to refer the matter for decision. As Surveyors in Madras have either to travel or to be away from home all the year, a part of their salaries was granted to compensate them for the extra cost of such a mode of life. It therefore was a question whether, under the Civil Pension Code, a deduction should not be made from their average emoluments for the purpose of reckoning their pensions. But, inasmuch as the whole pay of these Surveyors has heretofore been reckoned as pensionable, and as the Government of Madras desire to maintain this procedure, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to confirm the Proceedings of the Government of Madras (dated 24th January 1880), directing that the whole pay of Surveyors shall be reckoned as their emoluments for pension purposes.

Copy forwarded to the Home, Revenue, and Agricultural Department for information.

ORDER THEREON, 10th April 1880, No. 310.

Communicated to the Accountant-General with reference to the case of Head Surveyor K. Lakshmana Row, reported on in his letters noted in the margin.
3rd June 1879, No. 2206.
30th July 1879, No. A.D.J.—246.

2. The papers will now be returned to the Accountant-General, in view to its being reported what retiring allowance is admissible to the applicant under this order.
