CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT GENERAL.

Certified that (subject to the remarks below recorded) qualifying service in {inferior? superior?} grades has been duly proved for 5 years and 5 months days; and that a Commissaria {pension gratuity} not exceeding Rs. 244-4-0 equal to 3 is admissible under Section 59 & 76(a) of the Civil Pension Code. The calculations have been duly verified. With reference to Rules 1 & 6 of Section 59 of the Code, the sub Judge states that no employment could be found for the applicant & that the actual salary which was allotted to Government from the abolition of his appointment cannot be stated. The applicant was one of those thrown out of employ on the general reorganization of the Judicial Establishments and the case is therefore submitted to Government with reference to G.O. No 58 dated the 29th January last Pension Department.

The delay in the submission of this application is explained by the sub Judge in his reply to their Office objection Memo: No. A.D.X. dated the 31st December last.

In accordance with Rule 3 A of Section 57 the attention of Govt is respectfully submitted to Section 22 of the Code.

VIDE your Application for ~~Pension~~ on behalf of S. P. Saïad
Gratuity
Imam Muly, late 10th Gunasta of his Court.

The undersigned has the honor to enquire under what circumstances the sub-judge considered the applicant's services rendered in acting appointments up to 1st June 1874 to be qualifying. He would not seem to have been substantially appointed to any Post under Government before that date. If that portion of the service be rejected as non-qualifying, the applicant's total period of qualifying service will amount to less than 5 years, when the claim for a retiring allowance would become invalid. The delay in the submission of the application should be explained.

Applicant's service from 1 August 1873.
appears to have been taken by his late acting sub-judge as qualifying, in that he continued in the appointment ^{for 12 months} without any break and drawing his full pay and ^{subsequently reinstated} confirmed at 11 months on the 1 June 1874.

The undersigned can hardly account for the delay that occurred in the submission of the application, having taken place in his absence.
