1. The Assistant Commissioner Ganjam states that the entry in the Annual Return dated 1st May 1860 is a clerical error, and that the applicant held a permanent appointment at that time.
2. The delay in the submission of the application is due to the fact that before its submission to the Accountant General, it had to be returned to the Salt Deputy Collector for rectification of certain errors.
3. The word "Resignation" on the 3rd page of the Service Register (herewith returned) has been corrected into "Retirement". The affidavit referred to in the last para of the Accountant General's Memorandum is herewith sent. The Commissioner is of opinion that the applicant's services for the periods therein referred.

RECEIVED
1077

Affidavit made by Votacorn Teshapori Row, late 2nd Clerk Salt Revenue Office Ganjam District, before me this day the 31st Dec. 1888 in solemn affirmation.

I was the 2nd Clerk of the Deputy Collector's Office in the Salt Department, District from the Service for pension on the 31st March 1888. On looking at my Service Book I find that I have been properly supplied with the Exemption of certain months for which no pay bills are forthcoming in the Collectorate record - The first month mentioned is August 1860 - in that month and year I was doing duty as Telugu Munshi in the Salt Dep. Col. office; in August and October 1861 I was also doing duty in the Salt Dep. Collection Office as 2nd Clerk; in April 1862 I was also serving as 2nd Clerk in the same office; and again in March 1863 I was doing in the same post of 2nd Clerk. On the occasion above mentioned I was actually doing duty and was not absent on leave or suspended or acting in any other appointment - but I have no papers before my statements.

Sworn before me at 9/1 Dec. 1888

Signed in my presence and deposited before me -
Votacorn Teshapori Row
