Reply No 437

1. With regard to the cause of delay in submitting the application for pension, copy of the Secy. Asst. Collector's letter No 5 dated 10 January 1880, is herein enclosed.
2. The Applicant drew no gratuity for his service previous to 28 Feb/62.
3. The entry in Column 2 of the Register should have been "Peon on Gooman Jahilour's Office" and Peon of the Agents Court instead of "Peon to watch the Convicts at Ganjam Fort" and "Peon of the Agency Jail guards" I have accordingly corrected it. The original entry was made with reference to the duty on which the applicant was actually employed at the time.
4. The 8 months & 21 days' service as Peon Moherry Amin's Office should be transferred to head "Period not reckoned as service" as it appears from a Vernacular Order of the Collector No 730 October 1844 to the Head Police Konehar that the Amin's Office in question was established for the recovery of arrears of peshkash due by the Mohiri Zemindar and as such was a temporary one. The entry has been accordingly corrected.
5. The whole of the Applicant's service has been verified from the records that except that for the month of January 1849 for which affidavits taken from the applicant and his contemporary peon Karini Jagannathudu agreeably to Rule 5 under Section 84 of the Civil Pension Code 4th Edition are herewith sent. The entry in the register has been corrected accordingly.
The slip attached to the Service Register is not correct and it is requested that it may be cancelled.
6. The last pay certificate is also enclosed. The corrections referred to in paras 3 and 4 will have to be made in the service book of the applicant.

I know that after Soudapati Daya-nidhi's transfer from Moheray Amin's Office, he served for about 17 years as Peon of the Collector's Office in Charge of the Agency in Sail and afterwards as Police Peon. I knew this as I was then a Dalogit in the same Collector's Office. I do not recollect the particular dates between which he served in each of the said posts but he was never out of employment during the period.
