10th May 1880, No. 382.

Gratuity.

Read the following paper :—

From the Acting Collector of Ganjam, dated 26th May 1879.
From the Assistant Accountant-General, dated 11th March 1880, No. A.D.J.-81.

ORDER THEREON, 10th May 1880, No. 382.

It appears from the medical certificate of incapacity granted to the applicant in September 1879 that he must have been upwards of sixty years of age when removed from the service in October 1877, and there is thus no reason to doubt that he was at that time unfit for further service as reported by the Acting Collector.

2. T. Padumanabhadu, late Lascar, Port Establishment, Ganjam, is accordingly granted the invalid gratuity of Rs. 28, to which he is entitled for his qualifying inferior service of thirteen years and five months.

3. The gratuity is debitable to Port and Marine Funds in the usual proportions.

Certified that I, James
Hargreaves, Surgeon
Chatterpore, have carefully
examined Titti Padma-
-bhudu, son of Titti Kursimlu,
late Lascar of Guyana Sea Custom Officer. He says is by his own Statement 60 years,
and by appearance about 70 years. I consider Titti Pad-
-manabhu to be completely and permanently incapac-itated for further service of any kind or in the department to which he belongs, in consequence of impaired vision and general debility. His incapacity does not appear to me to have been caused by irregular or intemperate habits.

The undersigned has the honor to request that the Collector will, with reference to Section 62 of the Civil Pension Code be good enough to explain the circumstances under which he considered the applicant entitled to a retiring allowance notwithstanding that he lost his appointment by "Resignation" vide entry in Column 11 of the accompanying Service Book; Should it be now admitted that the term "Resignation"
was erroneously inserted in place of "Retirement"
it is pointed out that the removal of the applicant in October 1877 on the ground of incapacity for further service should have been based on Medical Certificate. Vide Section 62 of the Civil Pension Code 1st Edition.

Strictly speaking, Petti Radmanabhaiah lost his post by resignation and the entry in the Service Book was therefore correct. The resignation was however accepted in October 1877 on the ground of his incapacity for the service, though in the absence of any application for gratuity no medical certificate was obtained obtained at the time of his resignation. In April 1879 he applied for gratuity and a medical certificate of incapacity was then obtained.

It was under these circumstances that the application for gratuity was submitted. G.O. dated 3^d September 1877 No. 479 Pension Department requires the submission of such applications.

Applicant's pay was debitable to Port and Marine Funds in the proportions of $\frac{2}{3}$ and $\frac{1}{3}$ respectively.

FROM THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL, MADRAS,

TO THE

Collector of Ganjam.

VIDE your Application for Pension ^{Pension} ~~Gratuity~~ on behalf of Litti Rad-
-manabhudu late a Port-Lascar Ganjam.

THE undersigned has the honor to state that to enable

an applicant to become entitled to an Invalid Gratuity or Pension it is absolutely necessary that his incapacity for further Service should be established on the date of removal by a Medical Certificate as required by Section 62 of the Civil Pension Code 4th Edition.
 In the present instance it is not understood how the Collector considered the applicant to have any claim for a retiring Allowance while the Medical Certificate submitted in support is dated the 29th September 1879
 nearly 2 years after the date of his removal.

The Collector is requested to return this Office Objection Memorandum N^o A.D. No. dated the 28th August last for submission to Government with the other process connected with the Applicant's case.

In October 1877, Applicant being no longer able to do his work, resigned his post of P.M. Lascar in favor of his son & this arrangement was recommended by the P.M. Officer & sanctioned.

Applicant's son having been appointed in his stead the question of giving a gratuity to the Applicant was not thought of at the time; nor was an application made for it. No medical Certificate of incapacity for further service was therefore obtained at the time that the Applicant resigned the service.

Subsequently in April 1879 the Applicant asked for a gratuity; and as the cause of his resignation was in fact, unfitness for further service, and as the appointment of his son in his stead did not appear under the rules to bar his claim to gratuity, the Application was forwarded vide G.O. dated 3rd September 1877 & 1879 P.D. -

It is for the Government to decide whether the gratuity should be granted or refused.

The Memorandum referred to in the last para has been returned by the Treasury Dept. & Collected with a separate letter. -
