CERTIFICATE AND REPORT OF ACCOUNTANT GENERAL.

No. 114

Certified that qualifying service in the Police Department has been duly proved for 16 years 9 months and 16 days; but that 8 years 3 months and 25 days only of it qualifies, and that an Invalid Gratuity not exceeding Rs. 160 a month equal to 8 months pay will be admissible under sections 15(a) and 120 of the Civil Pension Code, unless Government are pleased to deal with the case favourably for the reasons stated below.

The applicant's service from 10th January 1863 to 30th August 1879 amounting to 8 years 8 months from the penalty of leaving the Pension to which he would be entitled had he paid his subscription to that Fund, they may under the powers granted by the Government of India in their letter No. 147 dated the 1st March 1879, grant to the applicant an Invalid Pension not exceeding Rs. 65-11 per annum, equal to that which would have been admissible to him if he had subscribed to the Superannuation Fund reduced by the amount of subscription due to the Fund.

In making the above calculation according to Table A, Appendix E of the Civil Pension Code, the applicant's age at the time of retirement has been taken as 57 years.

In accordance with sub 3 A under Section 87 the attention of Government is respectfully solicited to Section 22 of the Civil Pension Code.

I have the honor to submit for orders of Government an application for the grant of a pension — to Sheikh Goodoo Sail — late a 2nd Grade Head Constable No. 892 of the Tinnivelly District.

He has served in the Police Department for 16 years, — 9 — months and 16 days, and has borne a "moderately good" character. He is now unfit for further effective service of any kind as certified by the annual medical Invaliding Committee which assembled at the District
Head Quarter station on 25 October 1879.

3.

He would have been entitled to an invalid monthly pension of Rs 6. 10. 8, being a third of his average pay for the five years last preceding from the 26 October 1879 —

according to proviso to section 2 — of the Police Superannuation Fund Rules and Sections 61 (a) + 120 Scale A of the Civil Pension Code, but for omission to subscribe to the above Fund from 7 August 1865 to 30 June 1871 the date from which it was abolished

4.

Sheikh Goodoo is on receipt of a pension of Rs 7 per mensem from 11 August 1860 as a Havildar of the 15th Regiment

Regiment N.I. He drew his pay in the Police Department from date of enlistment viz: 10th January 1863 up to 6th August 1865 minus the Military pension after which date he was allowed to draw full Police pay in addition to military pension under the G.O. no 1096 dated 7 August 1865. As his military pension merged in the Police pay from 10 January 1863 to 6th August 1865, and as the pay of the whole force was reduced by the amount that would have been subscribed by them to the Superannuation Fund after its abolition, portion of his service from 7 August 1865 to 30 June 1871 does not qualify for pension under the rules of that Fund. But as the omission was owing to the existing departmental rules it is requested that he be granted a pension of Rs 6.5.11 after deducting from Rs 6.10.8 he would otherwise have been entitled to, the present value of the amount (Rs 35.6.5) on account of subscription due by him for that period to the said Fund as calculated according to Table A, Appendix E. of the Civil Pension Code taking the Head Constable's present age as 51 years. Vide Government of India orders contained in G.Os. No 105 and 106 dated 4 March 1879 in similar cases.
