Translation of Faked to the Tahildar of Chendragheri dated 9th May 1874 - N<sup>o</sup> 152

Read remarks on the Revenue Inspector's Diaries regarding their Carelessness in the discharge of their works,
And the Assistant Collector's letters N<sup>o</sup> 359 dated 21st August last and N<sup>o</sup> 482 dated 24th November last respectively.

The remarks passed in each month from May 1871 on the Diaries of the first Class Revenue Inspector Sathoo Row are as follows.

May 1871.

The work done by this Revenue Inspector during the Current month is not satisfactory. The reason assigned for the balance of 10 Cases is also the same. He should therefore be strictly informed that if he fails to dispose of the balance within three months from this date he will be fined. The Tahildar should obtain an explanation from him and send it to the S<sup>r</sup> a goor if the Cases above referred to are not disposed of within the time

17-7-71.

(Sd) J. D. Robinson
Collector

July 1871. The Revenue Inspector not having signed his diaries from the 18th he should now be required to do so. No measures were taken by him for the Collection of Arrears. The Cases referred to him are from a long time lying undi-posed of. Due notice will be taken of his Conduct if they are not disposed of within the period noted opposite to each. He when out on inspection duty in the villages should examine the registers in the possession of the Forest firka and under para 44 of the Rules. It was improper on his part not to have mentioned in his diaries the fact of his having examined the village Cultivation and Adangal accounts and also the Condition of ryots &c.

7-7-71.

(Sig) J. D. Robinson
Collector

August 1871. The Revenue Inspector has not done his work properly. He has merely filled the pages of his diary with some useless explanation. He has omitted to explain fully what arrangement he has made with the Kurnam in regard to the amount paid by Joty of Adoompully. He has failed to note what the arrears were in his firka and how much were collected thereof. If the arrears of work entered in this diary are the same as those referred to in last month's diary, what has been the cause for not disposing of them within the time allowed? His excuse that the Kurnam was absent in the village is not admissible. You will understand that if the arrears are not disposed of during the current month he will without fail be fined.

16-10-71

(Sig) J. D. Robinson
Collector

September 1871. The Collections made by this Revenue Inspector on certain dates in the month are not at all satisfactory. He has not given particulars for the arrear of work, in the prescribed form. The inclusion of one item with another evinces great neglect of orders on the part of the Revenue Inspector. A repetition of such carelessness will be severely noticed.

22-11-71.

(Sig) J. D. Robinson
Collector

July 1872 The Revenue Inspector's work during the month is disgraceful. No arrears were collected, no lands measured. Apparently has not examined village accounts nor compared receipts with Thundals. Has not taken the least pains to dispose of Fakeeds and Endorsements Amounting to 50 in number in arrear with him. Has delivered only 11 Inam pattas to 11 Ryots on the 26, 27, & 28th. He is now fined one Rupee. Copies of remarks on the diaries of the Revenue Inspectors off hittoon and chandragiri for June are herewith forwarded for information. If no good work is turned out by the Revenue Inspector next month, he will be removed from the appointment.

August 1872. The Revenue Inspector does not seem in this month to have compared receipts with Thundals, nor examined kainfall accounts and Registers of Birth & Deaths, nor Conducted the Special Agamaisb as per this Office Orders. There can be no excuse for this failure; all the works except Agamaisb are not time occupying ones.

3rd October 1872

December 1872

Has paid no attention to the large outstanding arrears, has merely filled page after page with what was written in the Takkeed and replies. His writing a Gadaast in answer to one received by him, and his conversation with the Tahsildar for some time are each entered in the diary as a day's work. Should in future explain matters in brief in the diary. Is now fined two Rupees for negligence. He should be informed that this is the last warning and if no progress is shown in the next diary, he will be removed.

24-1-73-

(Sgt) R. Sewell
apd collector

March 1873. — If the Revenue Inspector fails to dispose of the work in arrear with him as soon as possible the matter will be reported to collector.

3-4-73-

(Sgt) A. F. Cox
apd collector

April 1873. — The Revenue Inspector is once more warned against his slovenliness. He will be fined if he does not show progress in the disposal of arrears.

30-5-73

(Sgt) A. F. Cox
apd collector

It is impossible to make this Revenue Inspector to work properly. The diary is filled with useless and abominable entries while in reality only a little work was done. This Revenue Inspector in spite of the repeated orders issued to him on the subject reiterates what has already been stated in other correspondences. The names of ryots by whom his reports are sent to the Talug Cutchery are also entered in the diary to fill the space. This is most reprehensible. He halted one day at Mugilipett and 5 days at Chendragiri both of which are beyond his firkā. His explanation for such halts is not satisfactory. If he wanted any reference from the Talug Cutchery he might have written for the same. In the whole month he enquired into only one Revenue case in one day though he has too many cases in arrear of which some are of old dates.

(Sig) Prakasam Naidu
Tahsildar

From the above remarks and from your letter dated 4th August last, the Revenue Inspector in question appears to be quite useless and apathetic. There was not a single month after you assumed charge of this small Talug, in which he was not found fault with for allowing a large amount of arrears to remain uncollected. He was given several warnings, and was punished with fines, but they have proved ineffectual. The most satisfactory manner of doing the work of a Revenue Inspector is to be careful & attentive to his work, he constantly moving about in the villages of his firkā and to allow nothing to fall in arrear. But this Revenue Inspector's proceedings were quite the contrary and reflect no credit on him. He halted at a place for a number of days together, has taken no pains to collect the arrears of Revenue, nor to enquire into Revenue cases which he allowed to accumulate to a large extent. As there is reason to believe that other Revenue Inspectors will not work hard and turn out good work if so slow a man as this Revenue Inspector is retained in the appointment of a first class Revenue Inspector, it is desirable to inflict on this Officer an exemplary punishment and I hereby direct that Sathoo Row the 1st Class Revenue Inspector be reduced to that of 2nd Class now vacant in your Talug. His name should accordingly be entered in the Baravarth (Pay bill).
