Re: your Memo No A.D.H. dated 18th March last.
213

The undersigned has the honor to state that the appointment of Revenue Peon in which the applicant acted from 27th September 1853 to 13th January 1854 was not fully vacant as the permanent incumbent was on sick leave at the time. He having died, the acting man was confirmed on the 14th January 1854. As the applicant drew full pay of the post and was confirmed in the acting appointment without interruption in his service, he counted service in it during the above period under Rule 2 section 27 of the CPC.

The application is herewith returned with the omission pointed out supplied together with the service book, the closing entry in it having been attested.
