FROM THE ACCOUNTANT GENERAL, MADRAS,

TO THE District Judge, Madura

VIDE your Application for Gratuity on behalf of Mir Fakr-ud-din Sahib late 6 Gumashtah Shivaganga District Munsiffs Court Madura

THE undersigned has the honor to enquire

1 Whether the District Judge would have removed the applicant from service on the ground of his inefficiency had it not been for the reorganization of the Establishment. If so the District Judge is requested to state how he considered the applicant entitled to any retiring allowance while such removal entails forfeiture of past services Vide Section 56 of the Civil Pension Code 4th Edition

2 On what grounds the applicant was recommended for a Compensation gratuity when it is clear from the remark No 5 on the 3rd page of the application that he did not retire from the service in consequence of the abolition of his appointment Vide Section 59 of the Civil Pension Code 4 Edition

3 Why the applicants absence on leave without pay from 10 January to 15 March 1874 has not been included in the total period of his qualifying service Vide Section 53 of the Civil Pension Code

The Service Book is herewith returned for the purpose of Column 12 in the 3d page thereof being signed by the Head of the Office, and proper reason of termination of the applicants service on the 31st March 1879 inserted, and the Book retransmitted to this Office at an early date.

Reply:

The District Judge had no thought of removing & probably would not have removed the applicant but for the reorganization which rendered it necessary to dispense with several clerks. He did therefore retire in consequence of the abolition of 21 appointments & in the general arrangements made thereon.

The service Book is returned with the period between 10 Jany 7 & 15 March 1874 added.

Reply

As there were reductions in the Courts of other Districts also, it was useless to ask other Judges to employ them. The reason why they could not be employed here was, as already stated, that 85 appointments are insufficient for 91 men. The net result of the recent reorganization must be better known to the Accountant General than to the undersigned.
