No 1063 Reply.

En. 4 The deposition given by the applicant before the Tahsildar of the Taluk is herewith sent (translated) from which it will appear that he sought to retire from the service by reason of old age and infirmity.

2. The Pensioner ceased to be in Government employ from the 11th August 1879. The last entry in the history of his service is accordingly altered.

3. The application for pension was received in this office from the Sub Collector on the 11th October last and it was completed and verified and despatched to your office on the 3d November 1879. The time was taken up in the verification of the service both in this and the Sub Collector's office.

4. The Sub Collector agreed with the Tahsildar in considering that the applicant was unfit for further service from old age and infirmity. The undersigned also concurs in that opinion. The last pay certificate is herewith

Sent as requested.

Deposition given by Revenue peon Diima midi Gungulu of Madanapalle Taluk before the Tahsildar on the 24th May 1879.

I have been a Revenue peon for upwards of 44 years. I have not been accused of any irregularities or misbehaviours. I have become too old. I am unable to discharge my duties. So I request that I may be allowed to retire on pension and my elder son Moonigadu who is now 18 years old and fit for public service may be appointed in my stead.

I have heard what I deposed and admit that it is correct.
