THE MOST NOBLE RICHARD PLANTAGENET
CAMPBELL TEMPLE NUGENT BRYDGES CHANDOS GRENVILLE, G.C.S.I., C.I.E., Counsellor of the Empress and Governor of the Presidency of Fort St. George and its Dependencies, &c., &c., &c.

(Kind care of His Excellency the Governor of Pondicherry.)

The humble memorial of J. D'ROZARIO, Pensioner, late Third-class Clerk, Rangoon Magazine Office, and at present residing in Rue de Chartres, Pondicherry.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR GRACE,

That your humble memorialist begs to avail himself of the opportune arrival of your Grace in the French Settlement of Pondicherry on the occasion of the inauguration of the South Indian Railway from Pondicherry to Tindivanam to approach your Grace with this humble memorial in the fervent hope that your Grace will be pleased to pardon the intrusion on your Grace's valuable time and attention during your Grace's short stay here.

2. That, having found Pondicherry to be the cheapest place your memorialist ever resided in, and therefore suitable to the small pension accorded to your humble memorialist by the Indian Government, your memorialist respectfully solicited the Controller of Military Accounts, Fort St. George, on the 20th ultimo, to obtain the sanction of your Grace's Government for the drawing of your humble memorialist's pension through Her Majesty's British Consular Agent at Pondicherry along with a few other pensioners who have come to reside here from Cuddalore as in the case of your memorialist, to which respectful application the Controller of Military Accounts declined to accede, as will be seen by the enclosed original, No. 2419, dated 4th December instant, on the ground that your humble memorialist changed residence seven times since your memorialist's transfer to the pension establishment.

3. That the reason of your humble memorialist having been compelled to do so is chiefly owing, as already stated, to the smallness of his monthly stipend allowed to him by Government (viz., Rs. 16-1-2), rental and common necessities of life having been found to be above the means of your humble memorialist at other stations.

4. That, under these circumstances, your humble memorialist earnestly trusts that your Grace will, on your Grace's return to your Grace's seat at headquarters, be pleased to pass an order with the view that Her Majesty's British Consular Agent at Pondicherry may be requested to draw and disburse memorialist's pension along with the other pensioners.

5. That, in conclusion, your humble memorialist trusts your Grace will pardon your humble memorialist for drawing your Grace's attention to the fact that the present request is by no means for a fresh transfer, but simply that, in order to save memorialist undergoing the fatigue, expense, and risk in trudging from this to Cuddalore in his infirm age, the British Consular Agent may draw your humble memorialist's pension along with that of the others from the Cuddalore Treasury and hand it over to your humble memorialist, leaving thus the last transfer undisturbed.

6. That for this act of kindness and benevolence your humble memorialist, as in duty bound, shall ever pray.

Pondicherry
May it please your Grace That your Grace is the person who to avoid the loss of the opportunity of your Grace in the French Settlement of Pondicherry, on the occasion of the inauguration of the South Indian Railway from Pondicherry to Saurashtra, to approach your Grace with this humble Memorial in the request that your Grace will be pleased to provide the introduction to your Grace's valuable time and attention during your Grace's short stay here.
That having found Pondicherry to be the cheapest place in India where you resided in and that your Grace is the small Prisoner accorded to your humble Memorial by the Indian Government Your Memorialist respectfully solicited the Portulac of the French Government, Mr. de la Roche, on the 20th of the month of June, 1857, to be present at the inauguration of the railway.

to obtain the sanction of your Grace's Government, for the drawing of your humble memorialist's Pension, thro' the British Consular Agent at Pondicherry, along with a few other Pensioners, who have come to reside here from Cuddalore, as in the case of your memorialist, to which respectful application, the Controller of Military Accounts declined to accede, as will be seen by the enclosed Original of the 24th of June December Instant, on the ground, that your humble memorialist changed residence seven times, since your memorialist's transfer to the Pension Establishment.

That the reason of your humble Memorialist having been compelled to do so, is chiefly owing, as already stated, to the smallness of his monthly stipend, allowed to him by Government (viz. Rs. 16-1-2), rental and common necessities of his family, being found to be above the means of your humble memorialist at other establishments.
That, under these circumstances, your humble memorialist earnestly trusts, that your Grace will, on your Grace's return to your Grace's seat at Head Quarters, be pleased to pass an order with the view, that His British Consular Agent at Pondicherry, may be authorized to draw and distribute Memorialist's Pension, along with the other Pensioners.

That, in conclusion, your humble Memorialist trusts, your Grace will pardon your humble memorialist for drawing your Grace's attention to the fact, that the present request is by no means a fresh transfer, but simply that, in order to save Memorialist undergoing the fatigue, expense and risk in travelling travelling from this to Cuddalore in his infirm age; the British Consular Agent may draw your humble memorialist's pension along with that of the others, from the Cuddalore Treasury, and hand it over to your humble memorialist, leaving thus the last transfer undisturbed.

That, for this act of kindness and benevolence, your humble memorialist as in duty bound, shall ever pray.
